Nation's Coffers Opened as People Rally to Liberty Loan

McAdoo Appeals to Americans to Back the Bonds

By W. G. McAdoo,
Secretary of the Treasury.

Roughly speaking, and after allowing for the amount of revenue to be raised by taxation for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1918, we shall have to raise by additional bond issues between thirteen and fourteen billions of dollars. It is estimated that $5,000,000,000 will represent additional loans to allied governments, which, in turn, will give us their obligations bearing interest. This $5,000,000,000 will not, therefore, represent expenditures, it will represent loans, based upon the good faith and honor of these foreign governments — loans which will ultimately be repaid to the American people. But, as we must finance these loans, they are an integral part of our general financial operations. To raise $13,000,000,000 or $14,000,000,000 on or before the 30th of June, 1918, by the sale of bonds in recurring installments seems to some people an impossible task. It is a stupendous undertaking, but it is not impossible for America. It is not easy but it can be done. Our resources are adequate; our will is perfect; our spirit is indomitable and our success is certain. We have only to pull together—bankers, lawyers, doctors, manufacturers, farmers, wage earners, laborers, men and women alike; girl scouts and boy scouts, and every class of our people, and we can do the job.

SECRETARY OF TREASURY W. G. McADOO

MUST EQUIP MEN WITH WAR SPIRIT

For the purpose of equipping with arms, clothing and food our gallant soldiers who have been called to the field, maintaining our navy and our valiant tars upon the high seas, providing the necessary means to pay the wages of our soldiers and sailors and, if the bill now pending in the Congress passes, the monthly allowance for the support of their dependent families and to supply them with life insurance; constructing a great fleet of merchant vessels to maintain the line of communication with our brave troops in France, and to keep our commerce afloat upon the high seas in defiance of the German Kaiser and his submarines; creating a great fleet of aeroplanes which will give complete supremacy in the air to the United States and the brave nations fighting with us against the German military menace, and for other necessary war purposes the Congress of the United States has authorized the Secretary of the Treasury to sell to the American people bonds of the United States bearing 4 per cent interest, with valuable tax exemptions, and convertible under certain conditions into other issues of United States bonds that may be authorized by the Congress.

There is now offered to the American people a new issue of $3,00,000,000 of bonds to be known as the second Liberty loan. They will be issued in such denominations and upon such terms that every patriotic citizen will have an opportunity to assist the government by lending his money upon the security of a United States Government bond. It is essential to the success of the war and to the support of our gallant troops that these loans shall not only be subscribed but oversubscribed. No one is asked to donate or give his money to the government; but everyone is asked to lend his money to the government. The loans will be repaid in full with interest at the rate of 4 per cent per annum. A government bond is the safest investment in the world. It is as good as currency and yet better, because the government bond bears interest and currency does not.

WHY WE FIGHT IS EXPLAINED

We fight, first of all, for America's vital rights—the right to the unmolested and unobstructed use of the high seas, so that the surplus products of our farms, our mines and our factories may be carried into the harbors of every friendly nation in the world. Our welfare and prosperity as a people depend upon our right of peaceful intercourse with all the nations of the earth. To abandon these rights by withdrawing our ships and commerce from the seas upon the order of a military despot in Europe would destroy prosperity and bring disaster and humiliation upon the American people. We fight to protect our citizens against assassination and murder upon the high seas while in the peaceful exercise of these rights demanded by international law and every instance and dictate of humanity.

We fight to preserve our democratic institutions and our sovereignty as a nation against the menace of a powerful and ruthless military autocracy headed by the German kaiser, whose ambition is to dominate the world. We fight, also, for the noble ideal of universal democracy and liberty, the right of the smallest and weakest nations equally with the most powerful to live and to govern themselves according to the will of their own people. We fight for peace, for that just and lasting peace which agonized and tortured humanity craves and which not the sword nor the bayonet of a military despot, but the supremacy of vindicated right, alone can restore to a distracted world. To secure these ends I appeal to every man and woman who resides upon the soil of free America and enjoys the blessings of her priceless institutions to join the league of patriots by purchasing a Liberty bond.

(Signed) W. G. McADOO,
Secretary of the Treasury.

The Local Committees Outline the Big Campaign

The second Liberty Loan campaign was launched in Alameda county today from headquarters on the tenth floor of the Syndicate Building.

It will be set in full swing at a mass meeting to be held in the Hotel Oakland tomorrow night.

At this meeting will be the membership of the general and subsidiary committees, having the campaign in charge.

The meeting is open to the public and every citizen—man or woman—is asked to attend.

The campaign will be outlined in a vigorous speech by Cyrus W. Pierce, head of a San Francisco bond house, member of the speakers' committee of the Twelfth Federal Reserve district Liberty Loan campaign committee.

Another speaker will be Captain F. L. Goord, the only surviving officer of a company of British "Tommies" who went "over the top" in the battle of Loos and at Festubert. Goord will bring home to Alameda county folks the war as it is being fought today. He will picture the world struggle for the preservation of democracy as viewed by the men in the trenches.

Out of the two speeches Alameda county citizens will get a splendid idea of the need of raising the three billion dollars of the second Liberty Loan.

The new bonds carry 4 per cent interest which is one-half per cent better than the first loan. They are convertible into any subsequent issure of government bonds, carrying a higher rate of interest which may be issued.

Every city and town in Alameda county will be canvassed in behalf of the new Liberty Loan.

Alameda county is prepared to do "its bit."

H. H. Fair and Edward H. Geary, in charge of the distribution committee, are planning a solicitation campaign, much more thorough-going than the plan of the previous campaign. These men who are voluntarily giving their services to the cause have sent out an appeal to bond salesmen who will contribute some of their time to "putting the 1917 Liberty Loan across" in Alameda county. Salesmen are asked to get in touch with either Fair or Geary at Liberty Loan Campaign Headquarters, Tenth Floor, Syndicate Building, Oakland.

Robert M. Fitzgerald will preside at the meeting tomorrow night. Delegations from Alameda, Hayward, San Leandro, Newark, Pleasanton, Niles, Irvington and Livermore are expected.

Score Killed In Two Raids Over London

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE

LONDON, Oct. 1.—British naval air patrols destroyed two enemy machines and brought down another, says an official announcement. A Gotha also was brought down and believed to have been damaged. All the British machines are safe.

Nine persons were killed and forty-two injured in last night's air raid, it is announced officially.

Eleven persons were killed and eighty-two injured in the raid Saturday night.

The claim that the "new air barrage" acts as a powerful deterrent to the raiders seems to have been justified further in the latest attack. An immense number of guns of various calibres were in action.

There was an intense and far-reaching searching of the skies in all directions, the flashing of bursting missiles showing brightly in the heavens notwithstanding the extreme brilliance of a full moon. Even more impressive was the terrific din of the guns. Almost nothing is yet known concerning damage and casualties caused by the raiders. It is said several bombs were dropped in Essex and Kent without causing casualties.

PRESS DEMANDS BETTER LONDON AIR DEFENSE

One invader was driven from London by the guns of the fleet. Southwest of the capital another was seen over the Thames estuary. It was hemmed in by shellfire and wriggled for half an hour trying for an exit from what seemed a triangle of bursting shells. It finally escaped seaward.

A half-dozen bombs were dropped in a suburban district without causing casualties or important damage. One of the bombs narrowly missed striking a hospital.

The newspapers, while commending the vigor of the defenses, call for other measures and advocate reprisals on German towns.

The Times contends that it would be absurd to suppose that the problem of successful defense had been solved. It points out that the intense gunfire is only a partial deterrent and warns that air warfare is capable of infinite expansion and that new methods will have to be found to combat it. The Times advocates a great air fleet capable of carrying the war to a success.

TWO PLANES DOWNED; BRITISH DROP BOMBS

Two hostile machines were destroyed and two others driven down by British air patrols, says an official announcement today, recounting bombing raids over Belgium on Saturday night and air combats that resulted from patrol activities. The statement reads:

"During Saturday night bombing raids were made by naval aircraft over the following objectives:

"The lock gates at Zeebrugge, the Saint Denis Westrem aerodrome, the Thouret aerodrome and the Brugioise works and trains. Several tons of bombs were dropped with good results, a large fire being caused at the St. Denis Westrem aerodrome.

"During patrol several aerial combats occurred, with the result that two enemy machines were destroyed."

BERLIN (via London), Oct. 1.—German aviators bombed inner London, Margate and Dover last night, according to the official statement issued today by the German war office. All the German machines, it was added, returned unharmed.

FRENCH AIRMEN RAID STUTTGART

BY UNITED PRESS
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE

PARIS, Oct. 1.—French airmen successfully bombed the German city of Stuttgart, it was officially announced today.

Two French machines dropped the explosives over Stuttgart, the official announcement said. The raid occurred Saturday evening. It was in reprisal for German bombardments around Par Le Duc.

FEAR SKY RAIDS ON PETROGRAD

PETROGRAD, Oct. 1.—The Russian capital is preparing seriously to resist air raids. A series of observation posts within a radius of 200 miles has been established. Airplane patrols are on duty and arrangements have been made for darkening the city when the approach of enemy air men is announced by the blowing of sirens.

BASEBALL STAR BUYS FIRST BOND

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 1.—Every citizen who buys a $100 Liberty Bond is making a base hit against the enemies of his country.

So declared Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo here today in selling the first liberty Bond of the second issue of 1917 to Tris Speaker, star outfielder of the Cleveland baseball club.

The public square was thronged with thousands.

"And every citizen who buys four $100 bonds," continued Mr. McAdoo, "is making a home run. Mr. Speaker today is making the longest base hit of his career in buying a $1000 bond, for it's good for two and a half home runs."

A patriotic bystander tried to beat Speaker out of his base hit by shouting out a bid of $2000 for that first Liberty Bond. "I'll give two to one for that bond," yelled Richard M. Eaden, and McAdoo smiled as he replied:

"Good for you, my man, and if everyone shows your spirit we'll have this issue sold in double quick time."

But Speaker got his bond.

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—With $420,000,000 as an allotment for the Chicago list, 600 Liberty Loan bond salesmen started today on a campaign which they hope will result in the sale of $700,000,000 worth of bonds.

Among the 600 there was one woman, Miss Mary Olivia Taylor, publicity agent of a big mail order house.

"I shall sell exclusively to men," she said.

LIST OPENED BY BIG SUBSCRIPTIONS

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Two $5,000,000 and one $1,000,000 subscriptions to the second Liberty Loan fund marked the opening of the list here today. The Kuhn-Loeb company received a subscription of $5,000,000 from the Union Pacific Railway company and another for the same amount from the Southern Pacific Railroad company. The Bernhard-Scholl Company entered an initial subscription of $1,000,000 on behalf of themselves and their clients.

The municipality's goal is $900,000,000.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—The big drive for the second issue of Liberty Loan bonds began at noon today throughout the country. It will last four weeks.

The campaign is planned to raise at least $3,000,000,000 in subscriptions and treasury officials have set the "amount expected" at $5,000,000,000. Half again as large as the first Liberty Loan, the second offering is the largest the people of the United States have ever been called on to absorb.

Secretary McAdoo formally opened the campaign with a speech in Cleveland, the first of many he will deliver on his tour of the United States clubs, chambers of commerce, commercial organizations, schools, patriotic societies and like organizations which have been enlisted in the great army of "boosters." Newspapers, handbills, posters and speakers on the platform and stage will assist in the great drive.

Postmaster General Burleson has ordered that between October 1 and 7 all postage stamps be canceled with a stamp bearing the legend "Back the boys in the trenches. Buy a Liberty loan bond. Inquire at any bank or postoffice."

LA FOLLETTE CASE BEFORE COMMITTEE

Meeting Wednesday Called to Decide Action on Senator Accused of Disloyalty to U. S.

Mass of New Demands for Expulsion of Stone, Gronna and La Follette Are Presented

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—The Senate privileges and elections committee will meet Wednesday to decide what course to pursue with regard to the demand for the impeachment of Senator LaFollette of Wisconsin, Senator Stone of Missouri and Senator Gronna of North Dakota, because of alleged disloyal utterances and obstructionist tactics.

The call for the meeting was issued this afternoon by Senator Pomerene of Ohio, chairman of the committee, following the receipt of many more petitions from individuals throughout the country demanding expulsion of Senator Stone and Senator Gronna as well as Senator LaFollette.

Impeachment of the Senators was demanded in a petition presented to the Senate today by Senator Wadsworth of New York. The petition was signed by members of the Rotary Club of Ithaca, N. Y.

It charged that LaFollette, Stone, Gronna "and others" have been obstructing and hindering the government and asked their removal as "enemies."

VICE-PRESIDENT ALSO PRESENTS PETITIONS

Shortly after Senator Wadsworth presented the petitions, Vice-President Marshall also submitted a mass of telegrams, letters and communications from individuals and organizations, many of them from Wisconsin, demanding the expulsion of Senator LaFollette.

All of the communications were referred to the privileges and elections committee.

The petitions presented by Senator Wadsworth came from the Rotary Club of Ithaca, N. Y.; U. S. Grant Post, No. 327, G. A. R., Brooklyn, N. Y.; residents of Trumansburg, N. Y., and Sidney Post, No. 41, G. A. R., Ithaca, N. Y.

The communications laid before the Senate by Vice-President Marshall came from L. B. Ring, superintendent of the Wisconsin boys' welfare movement of Milwaukee; the Kewanis Club, a business men's organization of St. Paul, Minn.; W. E. D. Stokes of New York City; Edward Gillen of Racine, Wis., and from the county council of defense of Burnett county, Wisconsin.

"Our citizens demand an immediate secret investigation by patriotic committees of the Senate and House of charges of treason so widely circulated against Senators La Follette, Stone and Gronna and against Congressmen Britten, Mason, Baer and others."

"If they are guiltless of disloyalty," he urged that it be so announced by the committee. "If guilty, let the guilty be shot at once without the loss of an hour. It means saving good, loyal lives."

REMOVE ENEMIES OF COUNTRY, IS DEMAND

The Rotary Club of Ithaca petitioned the Senate as follows:

"Whereas, Senator Robert M. La Follette, Senator William J. Stone and Senator Gronna and others are deliberately and maliciously obstructing, delaying and endeavoring to kill legislation designed to enable the United States to vigorously and effectively prosecute the war; therefore, we, the undersigned, respectively request that you take such immediate action as will remove such enemies of the country's welfare from the United States Senate."

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Oct. 1.—The Chattanooga Bar Association today adopted resolutions "condemning in unmeasured terms" the acts of "Senators La Follette, Gronna, Reed, Hardwick, Stone, Vardaman and others acting with them," in their attitude toward the war and demanding "their expulsion from the American Senate."

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Oct. 1.—"Shadow-Hun," "Men who sit in our national legislature and serve the Kaiser," and the "Huns within our gates," received another denunciation from former President Theodore Roosevelt in an address here at the Workingmen's Red Cross Sunday celebration.

Peace Riots in Essen Quelled by Police Action

LONDON, Oct. 1.—A demonstration against the German government on Saturday at Essen, home of the Krupp Works, in consequence of the decision of Chancellor Michaelis not to state Germany's peace terms, is reported in an Exchange Telegraph despatch from Amsterdam. Women formed a majority of the demonstrators, says the despatch, breaking windows of the town hall and shouting demands for more food, for peace and for the return of their men folk. The police and military were called out to quell the riot. Two women were injured and several were arrested. The whole of Essen is reported to be in a state of foment.

The navy department was advised later that there had been no casualties, though a patrol boat carries about 125 men.

The accident occurred early today. Every effort is being made to ascertain the identity of the ship which crashed into the patrol boat.

VILLA HOLDS TOWN

EL PASO, Texas, Oct. 1.—Unconfirmed reports to American corporations here today declared that Francisco Villa, at the head of 100 bandits, has captured the town of Rosario, state of Durango, 50 miles south of Parral.

The reports said that Villa is having grain shipped from the Rio Florida valley and that he is grinding it in mills taken over by his forces in Rosario.

BOLSHEVIKI IRE AROUSED BY JAILING OF BERKMAN

Demonstration Threatened by Radicals in Petrograd to Attack the Ambassador's Home

ARMORED CAR IS SENT TO PROTECT FRANCIS

Meeting Hears Death Sentence Is in Store for Anarchist Connected with Mooney Case

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE

PETROGRAD, Oct. 1.—Several thousand members of the Bolsheviki at a mass meeting tonight adopted a resolution of protest against the imprisonment and reported imposition of a death sentence upon Alexander Berkman, the anarchist. Agitators who came here recently from the United States harangued the crowd while a big armed force of the speakers scoffed at American liberty and said the bourgeoisie ruled that country, but the Bolsheviki applauded only mildly.

A threatened demonstration against the American embassy was not carried out. The government preparing for eventualities, had sent an armored motor car and a detachment of troops to guard the embassy. Ambassador Francis said he had no fears of possible harm and did not request a guard. After the adjournment of the meeting the guard was recalled.

BERKMAN NOT UNDER SENTENCE OF DEATH

Alexander Berkman is not under sentence of death, although he has been placed under arrest in New York on the charge of murder in connection with the Preparedness Day bomb explosion in San Francisco, and his extradition on this charge is now being sought. His arrest immediately followed his release on September 12 under $25,000 bonds pending the settlement of his appeal from his conviction for conspiracy to obstruct the operation of the selective draft.

Berkman and Emma Goldman, arrested after they had addressed many meetings in New York on the subject of the draft, were tried and convicted by a jury, together with Louis Kramer and Morris Becker. On July 10 they were sentenced by Judge Mayer to two years in Federal penitentiaries and fines of $10,000 each. Berkman was sent to Atlanta, Georgia, and Miss Goldman to Jefferson City, Missouri. On July 29, United States Supreme Court Justice Brandeis granted a writ of error in their cases and ordered their release on $25,000 bail each.

Both prisoners were released from the Federal prisons and returned to the Tombs in New York to await the raising of the bail. Miss Goldman was soon at liberty, but it was some time before Berkman's bail was raised. When he finally stepped out of prison on September 12 he was at once arrested on the murder charge.

RUSSIANS CARRY HOME STORY OF TRIAL

His connection with the bomb murders, as defined by District Attorney Charles M. Fickert, is that he, as editor of "The Blast," a radical weekly published by him in San Francisco, was an influential member of the group of alleged conspirators who planned the bomb explosion. Berkman was not in San Francisco at the time of the explosion.

It is probable that the part which Berkman is playing in the Russian mind today is due to the information taken to Russia by the 500 or more Russians who left San Francisco for their native land as soon as the revolution started. They carried complete and first-hand data about the Mooney trial and the alleged connection of Berkman with the so-called conspiracy.

WHITMAN TO PROBE BERKMAN CASE

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 1.—Governor Whitman announced today that he would withhold his decision in the matter of the extradition of Alexander Berkmann, the anarchist leader, until he had examined the minutes of the San Francisco grand jury which returned the indictment. Berkman was recently arrested on a warrant charging him in connection with the San Francisco "preparedness parade" bomb explosion.

THREATEN GERMAN LINES TO BELGIAN COAS

BAKER TELLS MEANING OF HAIG DRIVES

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—Complete and official confirmation that the new British advance in the Ypres salient now threatens definitely the German communications on the Belgian coast came from Secretary of War Baker today.

In line with his plan of issuing a weekly review of the general situation, the secretary today made public his general analysis of the entire situation as affecting the various military movements. It emphasizes the fact that the initiative seems to have passed entirely from the Austro-German forces to the Entente on all fronts. The outstanding feature of the recent engagements, the secretary asserts, is "the wastage of the man power of the enemy."

The secretary also states that the national army and national guard movements in this country are proceeding as planned. The text of his statement was as follows:

"The Ypres salient continues the center of military interest along the western front. The battle of Menin Road, which promises to be one of the great battles of the war, is following its normal course.

"Last week we recorded the gains of the British in this sector. This week we must note the desperate attempt made by the Germans to retake the lost positions.

"Beginning last Sunday, the constantly increasing violence of the counter-attack reached a culmination on the 27th instant when seven onslaughts by the picked "storm" battalions of the enemy endeavored vainly to regain the lost objectives. The village of Zonnebeke, the center of the conflict, is now firmly held by the British.

STRATEGIC LOSS.

"It is now evident that the efforts of the enemy in this sector are not actuated merely by the desire to regain lost terrain of little more than tactical value, nor must their persistent attacks be considered merely the normal reaction of a modern field engagement in which counter-attack invariably follows up an attack, but rather it is to be noted that the enemy realizes fully the immense strategic importance of the British thrust along the Menin road.

"This new British thrust in the Ypres salient now definitely threatens the enemy's line of communications to the Belgian coast. The Ostend-Lille railway, which in a large measure feeds the German naval bases at Ostend and Zeebrugge, the latter the home port of the German high seas submarine flotillas, now comes within the range of the fire of the British guns.

"[illegible] their superiority over the British [illegible] their enemies was conclusively proved during the engagements of the past week.

"The battle of Menin Road, furthermore, shows that the fighting stamina of the Germans is deteriorating—not that the enemy did not display great skill and dogged determination in his repeated counter-attacks

"During the recent operations in this sector, the British captured 4848 prisoners, including 128 officers.

"Along the French front, particularly in the Aisne sector of Braye-Cerny-Hurtebise, artillery duels of intense violence are reported.

REGAINED BY FRENCH.

"The enemy attempted an attack upon the French outpost on the right bank of the Meuse. This attack was partially successful and certain German units gained a foothold in the French center, where a violent combat took place, which ended in the French regaining the lost position.

"Along the whole French front German storm contingents harassed the French line, though their attacks were everywhere repulsed. The operations of maximum importance were north of Verdun, where the enemy made use of liquid fire in an effort to record some distinct successes.

"The outstanding feature of the recent engagement was the wastage of man-power of the enemy

"If we compare the combat front of Verdun in 1916, held by twelve German divisions, with the combat front along the Aisne in 1917 held by fourteen divisions, both of practically the same length, it is found that during the same period of time from May to September, 1916, and 1917, respectively, the enemy engaged along the Verdun front twenty-five new divisions last year; along the Aisne, thirty-five new divisions this year

"So great has the wastage of enemy forces become, owing to the improved mechanical means of the allies and the perfection of their methods of combat, that the Germans are obliged to maintain in reserve as a minimum guarantee for the safety of their battle line in the west at least forty divisions

STILL POWERFUL.

"The western front thus remains the principal battle front of the war. It is still strongly held by the enemy and his defensive strength, while shaken, remains powerful

"Emulating their German allies, the Austrians have made desperate attempts to retake the lost ground which the Italians have taken during the offensives of the past few weeks.

"It is especially along the main Bainsizza Plateau that the Austrians concentrated their efforts Not only were their attacks unsuccessful, but the Italians were even able to extend their gains as a result of further terrain lost by the enemy.

"The Italians have now completed the conquest of the entire Bainsizza Plateau and are consolidating their positions there Along the Trentino and the Julien Alps, the enemy made various minor assaults, which were easily repulsed

'News from Russia continues slight. Further reinforcements of the enemy forces are reported in the Riga sector and indications are that the Germans contemplate extending their gains across the Dwina

'The German offensive was halted after the capture of Riga apparently to resume the Rumanian campaign with a view to complete the conquest of Moldavia, and, if possible, push on to Bessarabia In order to seize the rich grain and other supplies known to be stored there.

"No reports received indicate any unusual activity along the Rumanian front, where the situation remained unchanged during the week

"From Macedonia we have no news of importance The heat during the past week has prevented much activity. However, a raid by the combined French and Albanian contingents, the latter belonging to the forces of Essad Pasha, carried out in the Skumbi valley, should be mentioned

AMERICA'S ARMY.

'The mobilization of the national guard in their camps is proceeding rapidly and the formation of reorganized divisions is taking place. This reorganization is necessitated by the conditions of the present war and requires larger regiments and certain machine gun and other units not typical heretofore Some misunderstanding of the reorganization has arisen, but its purpose and military necessity are being explained and the division commanders are doing their utmost to preserve the local associations and historic memories of these state forces.

"The assembling of the national army cantonments has gone on with smoothness and success. Equipment difficulties are not serious and are being rapidly overcome.

"The most obvious shortage is in rifles, but an adequate supply for all purposes will soon be at hand and no delay in training is expected from the shortage. All overseas forces are, of course, adequately supplied"

Secretary Daniels is preparing to issue a weekly communique to show progress being made with war preparations in the navy and also disclosing in an official way something of the work being done by American naval forces now in European waters.

Except while at his meals the ally soldier in the front line trenches seldom is seen without his gas mask. A recent photograph of a bridge party in a French divisional headquarters shows the men prepared against a sudden gas attack. Constant vigilance is the price of safety and even in his diversions the warrior must be on the alert.

SAYS GERMANS MENACE MEXICO

PORTLAND, Ore, Oct. 1. — "Germany has been buying up Mexico, and unless the Germans are thoroughly beaten they will be more dangerous to us than ever. In that direction grave peril lies."

This solemn warning to America was given by James W. Gerard, former United States ambassador to Germany, who spoke before 6000 persons in the municipal auditorium here today.

"Germany has an unlimited capacity for hate," continued the diplomat. "The first American soldier taken by the Germans will have a very hard time. Germany hates America as she hates Britain for this country's unexpected entrance into the war

"One thing I wish to impress upon you with great emphasis and that is Germany still is extremely strong, and that the only way she can be beaten is by actual military effort in the field. While economic conditions have grown steadily worse, the Prussians are far from starving and will remain so."

So fatigued by his trip was Gerard yesterday that he declined all offers of entertainment and remained in his room until evening, when he was the guest of the Arlington Club at a banquet. At 3 50 o'clock this afternoon Gerard will leave for California, where he will speak in San Francisco and Los Angeles.

War Tax to Hit Everybody

Pay, Pay: Cradle to Grave

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—The $2,700,000,000 war tax bill, which is up for final action today in the House, "catches" almost everybody from the cradle to the grave and for good measures, levies a few new taxes on the heirs.

The "baby's first dash of talcum powder" will, under the two per cent manufacturer's tax on cosmetics, help Uncle Sam carry on the war, and after death the federal collectors will be on hand to get the inheritance tax, an advance on the present rate of from one per cent on $50,000 to ten per cent on $1,000,000. Between birth and death, most of man's activities would be taxed, voting a proxy at a meeting of a cemetery association being one of the few specifically exempted.

Those who have profited most by the war, the recipients of enormous excess war profits, will pay the most to help carry it on. Almost half the total amount of the bill, or about $1,110,000,000 is to be collected from them.

POSTAL RATES SOAR.

The person who writes a postal card will be caught, for cards will sell for two cents each by the provisions of the bill. Letters will be three cents. One will be taxed when he goes to a moving picture show, if the admission is over five cents, one-tenth of the cost of the tickets. That rate will affect all who attend amousements, from the man in the gallery to the one in the box. A host of stamp taxes designed to raise $30,000,000 also will get the man who has little money in many ways His greatest consolation is that the consumption taxes, which would have made him pay on coffee, tea and sugar, were stricken from the bill.

The people of moderate means as well as the wealthy are affected by rates have been doubled and exemptions lowered to $1,000 for single persons and $2,000 for married ones. Sur-taxes for incomes above $5,000 range from 1 to 50 per cent, the maximum applying to incomes over $1,000,000. This section is expected to raise $600,000,000

Included in the taxes imposed on the manufacturers are levies of one-quarter of a cent a foot on motion picture films; two per cent on the sale price of chewing gum and three per cent on automobiles, musical instruments and jewelry.

HARD ON MIDNIGHT SONS.

Even drowning ones troubles in drink or sending them up in smoking will cost more, for the levies on all kinds of drink and tobacco soar. The new rate on whiskey is $2.10 per gallon and beer, $2 50 a barrel. Wine taxes will be doubled and even grape juice will be taxed a cent a gallon.

A person cannot escape taxes by travel. Eight per cent is assessed on passenger tickets and summer tickets also pay a tax.

The Senate and House resumed work today on important war legislation with adjournment of the session tentatively set for not later than next week. The house was prepared to take final action on the war tax bill as redrafted in conference. The eight billion dollar deficiency appropriation bill now in conference and the soldiers and sailors insurance bill are the only other measures demanding disposal before the end of the session. Indications are that the soldiers and sailors civil rights bill was shelved until the regular session in December.

Some confusion and misinterpretation has arisen out of the wording of the section imposing stamp taxes on negotiable instruments which has been misconstrued to mean that a tax has been placed on bank checks. The bill says.

"Drafts or checks payable otherwise than at sight or on demand," etc., two cents for each $100. The official interpretation of this section is that as a check is payable at sight and on demand, it therefore is excluded from tax.

ARGENTINA'S NEUTRALITY TO CONTINUE

By CHARLES P. STEWART.
United Press Staff Correspondent.

BUENOS AIRES Oct 1.—President Irigoyen regards Germany's explanation of the Luxburg incident as satisfactory and will firmly adhere to a course of neutrality for Argentina, according to a detailed outline of his position, made public today by the national juvenile committee, which favors a rupture with Germany.

The statement contained the first explanation by Irigoyen himself as to his views on Argentina's position and announced he would soon call a congress of American neutrals to decide South America's attitude on the war. It was a detailed narrative of an interview which the committee had with the President on Sept 26. In this conversation, the President insisted that "Argentina can not be dragged into the war by the United States."

"We pointed out to the President the importance of the demonstration of pro-Allied forces on Sept. 26," the statement declared. "President Irigoyen asked:

ASKS MOTIVES.

"'What motives have you in demanding a rupture with Germany?'

"We explained that our national honor was offended by Count Luxburg and added that the German explanations were unsatisfactory. President Irigoyen asks:

"'Why don't you demand a declaration of war instead of a rupture?'

"We explained that if the government thought that step advisable Argentina's youth would fulfill its duties.

"The President stated he did not agree with our movement because it 'was based on an uncertain incident.' The President added that the German explanations were most satisfactory, that there was no parallel in world diplomatic history for such completely satisfactory measures. He added that our movement would be justified if based on the necessity of being with those in defense of right and liberty. He stated that Argentina could have interfered in the struggle before the radical party assumed control of the government—referring to the Dinant case and the seizure of the steamer President Mitre.

NO WAR DEMAND.

"'Why, the country did not demand a decision from the government then! At that time Argentine could have interfered in the struggle without being certain of victory; while now we may be charged with the the certitude of victory. Severing [illegible] gentina in an innocuous and neuter condition, which would deprive us of rights that can be exercised while we continue a neutral.

"'Argentina could not be satisfied with a situation such as Brazil occupies.'

"The President added that he would state his views in a manifesto and would call a congress of American neutrals to decide the South American attitude.

"Irigoyen stated that Argentina can not be dragged in by the United States and that the nation must take the position it deserves in the American continent."

SOUTH WILL JOIN

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—Twenty countries of South America will be in the war on the side of the allies within a year, according to John Barrett, director of the Pan-American Union, who is in Chicago today.

"Brazil, Bolivia, Panama, Uruguay, Cuba and Costa Rica have essentially broken off diplomatic relations with Germany," Barrett said, "and Guatemala, Honduras, Nicaragua, Haiti and the Dominican republic have practically the same attitude. Argentine, now on the verge of severing relations, will carry with her Chile, Peru and Paraguay.

"Of the remaining five countries, Venezuela, Colombia, Ecudaor, Salvador and Mexico, all lean strongly toward the United States and the allies."

PLAN NEW PARTY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—Amalgamation of liberal elements of all political parties into a new organization to be planned at a conference of leaders in Chicago Wednesday was discussed with President Wilson today by Matthew Hale, Massachusetts Progressive leader. Mr. Wilson was told that a number of progressive, Democratic, socialist, prohibition, labor and agriculture leaders and single tax advocates at the Chicago conference will discuss forming an organization to enter the 1920 campaign.

STRIKE QUELLED

PHOENIX, Ariz., Oct. 1.—Sheriff Slaughter and a force of deputies early today dispersed a band of four hundred armed Mexican miners marching from Morenci to Clifton, Arizona, where there has been a strike in the copper mines, according to reports received at the governor's office. Seventy-three were arrested. The sheriff has asked governor Campbell for troops to protect mine property.

MOBS IN RIOTS

PETROGRAD, Oct. 1.—Disorders are reported at Tambov, 300 miles southeast of Moscow, and at Koslov, in Crimea, where mobs led by former criminal exiles to Siberia burned and destroyed much grain and other property.

Nux, Iron, Pepsin and Sarsaparilla

The combination of two great medicines, Hood's Sarsaparilla and Peptiron, by taking them in conjunction, one before eating and the other after, brings into co-operation the above-named substances, best for the blood, nerves and digestive organs.

This combination is especially recommended in cases that are scrofulous, or rheumatic, anemic and nervous, or where the blood is both impure and pale, deficient in iron—one of the most common disease conditions of the present day.

In cases where a laxative is needed, Hood's Pills should be taken. They work in perfect harmony with Hood's Sarsaparilla and Peptiron, and are mild and efficient.—Advertisement.

Big Procession Follows Sinn Fein Leader's Remains

By Associated Press.

DUBLIN, Oct. 1.—The funeral procession which followed the body of Thomas Ashe, the Sinn Fein leader who died Thursday, from the city hall to Glasnevin Cemetery yesterday was extremely large, exceeding in numbers even that of the Parnell funeral in 1891. The procession was very well organized and perfect order was kept.

The principal contingents were Irish volunteers, the Gaelic Athletic Association, the Gaelic League and Liberty Hall citizen army and the Dublin trade unions. There were also many representatives of women's clubs.

NEED HOMES FOR NEW WORKINGMEN

growth of Oakland. But to do so they must have the co-operation of the bankers and the manufacturers and the good will of the community as a whole."

H. A. Lafler, publicity expert, commended the idea, saying:

"The TRIBUNE editorial on industrial housing is very much to the point. This is, in my judgment, one of the most vital questions in Oakland today. Unless the incoming hosts of industrial workers can find decent housing accommodations the future manufacturing growth of Oakland will be seriously hampered. Even today the 7:15 and 7.20 boats from San Francisco to Oakland are crowded with men working on the Oakland side. We cannot expect them to move to Oakland or Alameda if all we have to offer at low rentals are tumbledown houses with antiquated plumbing, dangerous to health, in the older sections of the city.

"It is too much to expect that any large proportion of our new industrial population will be in a position to buy homes right away, and the really pressing need, therefore, is for bungalows or bungalow apartments for rent at from $15 to $22.50 a month. There is plenty of cheap level land in Oakland highly suitable for bungalow courts, so popular in Los Angeles, which give a maximum of light, sunshine, air, privacy and play space for a minimum of land and construction cost. Some of our capitalists could perform no greater public service than by building a number of bungalow courts for rent at moderate prices. Later on these renters will become home owners.

"The subject is a big one and may well be the theme of co-operative effort on the part of our bankers, manufacturers, builders and realtors."

SEEK LARGER GROUNDS FOR ALIEN CAMP

The congested condition at the German internment camp on Angel Island probably will be relieved by the arrival of W. F. Berkshire, supervising superintendent of German internment camps, who will leave today with Commissioner of Immigration Edward White for Sacramento to look over a number of sites which have been offered to the government at that point.

According to Commissioner White, the government had intended to ship the interned Germans at Angel Island to camps in the southern Atlantic states, but when it was found that the railroad company would charge $75 a head for the men, necessitating an expense of over $12,000, a new internment camp in California was decided upon.

Berkshire was formerly supervising inspector of immigration at El Paso.

In connection with the investigation of conditions at Angel Island, it was learned yesterday that the first arrest of white men engaged in the Chinese smuggling traffic had been made by operatives working under the direction of Assistant Attorney General John B. Densmore. The men, four in number, are being held incommunicado at the county jail, and Densmore would not state who they were or whether they were government employees at the immigration station.

FOOTBALL MEN WORK AT CAMP

Special to THE TRIBUNE.

CAMP LEWIS, American Lake, Wash., Oct. 1. — Muster for pay gladdened the hearts of the men in training here for the national army yesterday, and after the joyous event was over every man who could obtain leave started in search of a higher civilization than the camp affords. Tacoma was the popular rallying ground and every proprietor of a place of amusement found out that "the ghost had walked" at American Lake.

Besides the training for the trenches prescribed by the War Department here there is some highly intensive training in football going on in the camp and some games of the first class are due this fall, for there are some veterans of the gridiron among the neophytes of war.

A schedule of games is being formulated, calling for a big game between the 362d regiment and the Seattle naval militia at the Tacoma Stadium on Thanksgiving Day.

Among the men whose names are known to all followers of football on the coast and who now are at Camp Lewis are: Lieutenant Russell, who was last year's center at the University of California; Lieutenant Morse, former University of Cincinnati guard; Capel, for four years with the Utah Aggies; Charles Kelly, former California guard; Drury, University of Chicago end; Lieutenant Bell from the University of Southern California; Lieutenant May, former Oregon Agriculture College coach; Speck Hurlburt of the Multnomah Club, Portland; Earny Vosper, Portland interscholastic star, and Lieutenant Hutchinson, California.

MAN HANGS SELF

FAREWELL GIVEN TO LIBERTY BOYS

"Liberty Soldiers" from Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda and various other cities and towns throughout the county are guests of honor this afternoon and tonight at a farewell celebration under the auspices of a citizens' committee, headed by George E. Sheiden. Beginning with a parade that started at Thirteenth and Clay streets at 3 o'clock this afternoon the celebration is scheduled to last well into the night, Idora Park being the place of general assemblage.

The parade arrangements were directed by Sheriff Frank Barnet, Al Moffitt and C. F. Carl, and provided for the presence of sailors from the Naval Training Station at Goat Island headed by a naval band; five school bands of Oakland, platoon of Oakland police under Corporal Thomas O'Neill; Oakland Boy Scouts and a number of city officials.

Aquatic sports, dancing and other amusements were provided besides the following program:

8 p. m.—Concert by the sixty-piece Naval Band from Goat Island.
8:25 p. m.—Address by Mayor John L. Davie.
8:35 p. m.—Patriotic song by Hugh J. Williams, tenor.
8:45 p. m.—Address by H. C. Capwell.
9:00 p. m.—Song by Mrs. Viltha Ruggles Jenkins, soprano.
9:05 p. m.—Star-Spangled Banner by band, soloists and audience.

FOR U. S. SOLDIERS

Plans for the holding of a patriotic mass meeting to discuss the welfare of men in the United States army and navy will be considered at a meeting of the recently organized United Parents for World's Democracy to be held in hall B in the Municipal Auditorium tonight. It is proposed by means of the big gathering to interest the entire community in army and navy welfare work for which the organization was formed. The election of officers and appointment of committees will also take place tonight.

75 NOT TOO OLD TO FIGHT FOR U. S. A.; PROVES IT

"Seventy-six years is not too old for a man to fight for the U. S. A."

So says Danny Meader, property-man for a local vaudeville house, who practices what he preaches. As the result, Otto Schultz, a mechanic, is nursing a badly lacerated face and keeping still. Meader is the hero of his stage crew.

It happened last night on the street. Schultz, who is not in favor of the war with Germany, thinks America is fighting for England, and a few other things of the same kind, was saying so rather loudly. Meader objected. Schultz resumed his harangue.

The property-man is 76 years old, but he is used to moving "props," and, besides, he says he "saw red when the flag was roasted." Forgetting his age, he "sailed in." The German went down. Bystanders separated the men and hustled the younger one to safety.

PATRIOTIC TALKS HEARD IN PULPITS

Patriotism was the theme in many of the churches of Oakland yesterday. At St. John's Episcopal church the congregation, after listening to a sermon with patriotism as its keynote, stood and with raised right hand renewed its pledge of loyalty and enlisted its services in the suppression of disloyalty of utterance and traitorous design against the government and the conduct of the war.

In accordance with plans adopted in various sections of the country, the Rev. Spencer Irving announced that a special weekly service will be conducted for the purpose of renewing allegiance to the nation.

At the First Presbyterian church the Rev. Frank M. Silsley spoke on "Is the War Part of the Tribulation Period Prophesied?" He declared that in our prayers for national victory there should be no element of hate. "There are no hymns of hate in the sermon on the mount," he said. "David's imprecatory prayers calling down cursing wrath upon its nation's foes may suit our feelings and moods better, but Christ's prayer of victory with love is the expression of our better selves."

CHURCH IS POWER.

The church commands the greatest force for the ending of the war in righteousness, he declared—the power of prayer. He advocated a day of universal prayer.

Speaking on the subject of the minister's duty in connection with the war, the Rev. Bernard C. Ruggles, at the Church of the Universal Christ, declared: "The lazy minister is a slacker, the pussy-footed parson is a traitor and the line-of-least-resistance preacher is a coward." Exemption from military service, he declared, is a draft into the spiritual service.

"Faith in the Factory," with its bearing on the part that industry must play in the winning of the war, was the theme of the Rev. F. J. Van Horn at the First Congregational church. The minister discussed the strikes in the shipyards and the carmen's strike in San Francisco. "During the past thirty years the Church has [illegible] labor difficulties," he said, "and for the most part the decision has been in favor of the laboring man."

LABOR AND CHURCH.

The minister declared that the matter of the just man-to-man conference in the strike is that of Christ and the church. The laboring man has received this as his heritage from the church. The laboring man is not going away from the church, but statistics show that three-fourths of the congregations are now made up of laboring men.

At vesper service at Mills College Sunday evening the Rev. J. B. Orr spoke on "Getting What We Want."

"Count that person advanced who makes many demands," he said. "The value of education is that it multiplies our needs. A friendly world supplies our every want if we impress our minds with an image of what we most desire and visualize our wants being supplied. You can secure your coveted boon by these three laws—know, want, picture."

HONOR MUSICIAN

Thirty-eight members of the San Quentin band and orchestra have presented to Paul Steindorff, director of the municipal band, an enlarged and framed photograph of the prison organization which he recently directed during a performance within the gates. Director Steindorff took charge of the program at the prison on September 14 on the occasion of a visit by a committee of Oaklanders. The photo was taken at that time.

During the noon rehearsal of yesterday's program at the park, the picture was presented to Director Steindorff by Secretary Henry Vogt of the park board. An engrossed list of the donors accompanied the presentation.

ACTRESS DRAWS

That the local newspapers cover the field most efficiently is proven by the fact that although newspaper publicity and advertising notifying the patrons of the American Theater that Miss Mary Miles Minter, moving picture star, would appear in person Sunday, was only used Saturday and Sunday in the Oakland press, the theater was crowded to capacity.

Manager Rex. W. Midgley said that he thought the result of the advertising proved the absolute ability of the Oakland press. At the conclusion of the performance Miss Minter was entertained by the newspaper men of the city.

FIGHTS TO DIE

John Ware, former janitor at the Salvation Army headquarters, who attempted suicide by cutting his throat Tuesday of last week, made a sensational attempt to escape from the Merritt hospital yesterday afternoon by jumping from a second story balcony. He was detected and caught when he jumped 30 feet to the ground, by Joaquin Josephs and A. C. Smith, convalescing patients, who, after a desperate fight, turned him over to hospital attaches. The man was removed to the Central Emergency hospital and placed him in a straight-jacket.

HUGE FUND RAISED FOR ARMY LIBRARY

With a total contribution in Oakland of $3000, and with the campaign in Berkeley, Alameda and the east end of the county well under way, it is estimated that $6000 will represent the amount raised in Alameda county as its share of the million-dollar library fund collected throughout the nation during the past week. While $10,000 was aimed at, $6000 is satisfactory considering that it was all raised in small amounts, according to Librarian Charles Greene of the Oakland Free Library, who has been a leader in the work. As the Berkeley campaign started several days late, it will not be completed until some time this week.

Church congregations and their pastors last night finished their work in connection with securing 10,000 volumes in Alameda county for America's fighting men. Their contributions have not all been totaled, but it is certain that these will add substantially to the fund. Reports from some of the fraternal organizations will not be available for several days.

"The high schools did very well and we are highly pleased with their showing," said Librarian Greene. "We obtained $1570 from the schools, including $382 from the Oakland high school, or $132.51 more than was pledged, $305 from the Technical, $300 from the University High, $250 from Fremont and $110 from the Vocational High School. In the case of the Oakland High School, the contributions averaged 50 cents for each pupil."

CONSTIPATION INVITES DISEASE

A reliable laxative is necessary to the comfort and health of any well-ordered household. Simple constipation is a condition that affects, in greater or less degree, practically every member of the family. When the bowels fail to act the entire system is affected; digestion is impaired, nerves begin to twitch, foul gases and poisons generated by decomposing substances in the intestines are distributed throughout the body, and often result in [illegible] illness. A prominent French specialist says sixty-five percent of all human disease is directly traceable to inactive bowels.

More than a quarter of a century ago Dr. W. B. Caldwell prescribed a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, which is now the standard remedy in thousands of homes. This preparation is sold by druggists for fifty cents a bottle, under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. A trial bottle can be obtained, free of charge, by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 404 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

SUMMER COMPLAINT.

During the hot weather of the summer months some member of almost every family is likely to be troubled with an unnatural looseness of the bowels, and it is of the greatest importance that this be treated promptly, which can only be done when the medicine is kept on hand. Mrs. F. Scott, Scottsville, N. Y., states, "I used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy as much as five years ago and that time I had a severe attack of summer complaint and was suffering great pain. One dose relieved me. Others of my family have since used it with like results." For sale by all dealers. Adv. drug stores. —Advertisement.

SANBORN TO HELP FIGHT FARE RAISE

H. M. Sanborn, San Francisco attorney, formerly employed as an expert with the State Railroad Commission, was today named by the majority members of the city council to appear in council with the city attorney on October 12 in opposition to the applications for increased fare schedules by the Southern Pacific and the Key Route companies.

At a conference held in the office of Mayor Davie this afternoon Sanborn was chosen, and his appointment will be ratified by the city council tomorrow. His salary will be at the rate of $5000 a year for the time of the hearing. Bishop and Bahler, rate experts of Oakland, put in a bid of $1000 for handling the entire job, transcripts of testimony to be paid for by the city.

Commissioner Edwards was amenable to the Bishop proposition, but he was outvoted by the other members of the council who favored Sanborn.

Sanborn was recommended for the position of rate expert by City Attorney Paul C. Morf before Morf left for the east two weeks ago.

HOMES DAMAGED BY GULF STORMS

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 1.—Thirty-two houses were destroyed on Dauphine Island, where Fort Gaines, Ala., is located; scores of boats are ashore, bottom up, two dozen small craft were sunk off the Alabama coast and much damage done to government property at Fort Morgan, as the result of Friday's hurricane sweeping the Gulf coast, according to first direct information reaching here today from Fort Morgan. No lives were reported lost.

The gulf tanker Detroit, missing in the West Indies hurricane and believed sunk, arrived today at the Mississippi river's mouth, three days overdue. The Detroit encountered a 130-mile gale, but weathered it without damage.

This information, the first to reach the outside world from Pensacola since Friday afternoon, when communication was cut off, came to the navy department today from the Pensacola Navy Yard radio station. Damage to the navy yard was estimated at $100,000.

Mrs. Rouse and Child Gone

Boy, Center of Suit, Is Missing

The four-year fight of Mrs. Annie Matthews to recover legal possession of her 11-year-old son, Gerald, and which was considered won by her after the State Supreme Court granted her custody, has developed a new turn by the sudden and mysterious disappearance of the boy and his former guardian, Mrs. Warren A. Rouse. All efforts of the sheriff's deputies to serve the writ of habeas corpus issued at the direction of the supreme court have been unavailing. No response has been received to summons at the Rouse home at 705 Thirty-fourth street, and the whereabouts of the boy and his guardian is unknown.

When the writ was issued Attorney W. B. Reinhardt declared that regardless of the writ, the fight would be continued, and it is believed that, pending an appeal for a rehearing, the boy has been spirited away.

Mrs. Matthews and her boy have been separated since the time of the San Francisco fire, in 1906. At that time the Matthews were rendered homeless and destitute, and the baby was placed in the care of the Rouse family. Four years ago, having obtained a secure position again in life, Mrs. Matthews requested that the boy be returned to her. The Rouses, having grown to regard the boy as their own son, refused. Mrs. Matthews then appealed to the courts and the battle for the possession of the boy has waged continuously since.

A lower court first awarded the custody of the boy to its foster parents, but the decision was recently reversed by the supreme court.

TWO SYNDICATES SUED BY BANK

The Realty Syndicate and the Realty Syndicate Company have been made defendants jointly in an action brought by the First National Bank of Emeryville to recover the unsatisfied portion of a judgment against the defendant, the Realty Syndicate. The judgment was entered in 1916 and an execution was given for the sale of the securities, certain stocks of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways. The sale netted only $35.80, which was applied on the judgment, leaving a balance of $3,018.25 unsatisfied, and for which suit is now brought to recover.

The complaint alleges that the Realty Syndicate Company, organized in pursuance of the reorganization plan devised by the committee of business men, received from the Realty Syndicate all the assets of whatever nature without consideration except 90,000 shares of the new company, and that the new company did not undertake to satisfy the debts and liabilities of the old company except such as were secured by real estate mortgages and deeds of trust on real estate, and that the plan was devised for the purpose of "hindering and defrauding the creditors of the old company."

The complaint further alleges that the two companies are one and the same, with the same directors, same assets, and, as the action is intended to show, the same liabilities.

MANY ARE SLAIN

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 1.—It was semi-officially announced today that an agreement between the striking miners and coal operators in Southeastern Kentucky and Northeastern Tennessee had been reached and that the mines would resume work within no less than five days. Between 17,000 and 18,000 men have been idle in these fields for about six weeks.

President Wilson may be appealed to today to send troops to restore order in the strike district of Kentucky and Tennessee, where four men have been killed and several wounded in battles between posses and armed strikers.

WM. EASON DIES

ALAMEDA, Oct. 1. — William H. Eason, veteran newspaper man of the San Francisco bay section, dropped dead at noon today on Park street. He collapsed without warning. He was removed to the Emergency hospital, but was already dead and his body was removed to the branch morgue.

Eason had been on most of the papers about the bay. Several years ago he came to this city and started work on the Times-Star. He was one of the last of the old guard left of the early day newspaper men. He was past 60 years old and leaves a widow.

FIRES CONTROLLED

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 1.—Forest fires that swept three sections of Southern California within the past thirty-six hours, threatening great damage to ranch property and watersheds, are under control today. Ceaseless fighting by over 700 men for thirty-six hours stemmed the wave of flames. Over forty miles of brush and timber land have been burned over, but the actual monetary loss is low.

PLAN SESSION.

ALAMEDA, Oct. 1.—The city council and board of education will meet tomorrow night. The chief matters to be considered are of routine nature. Both meetings are the regular sessions, one being the semi-monthly council meeting and the other the weekly board gathering.

BLAIR VICTIM'S FUNERAL HELD

ALAMEDA, Oct. 1.—Mrs. Georgia M. Wade and Miss Grace E. Wade, who were shot and seriously wounded on Friday evening by James Kent Blair, a 20-year-old ironworker, who emptied a magazine rifle in a murderous outburst brought about by a drinking bout, are resting easily in the Alameda sanitorium today and the attending physicians declare that they will both recover.

The funeral of Miss Eva Billings, who was killed outright by a bullet through her heart, was held today from an Oakland undertaking parlor. The authorities and friends of the slain girl in this city failed to find any trace of her relations in Richmond or of an aunt believed to be living in Berkeley. An inquest will be held tomorrow afternoon at 5 o'clock by Coroner Grant Miller. Among the witnesses will be Mrs. Nellie Blair, mother of the murderer; Mrs. S. E. Boutck, young Blair's aunt; Miss Barbara Worth, the 14-year-old girl who was one of the group fired upon, and Policeman Joe Sevente and Alexander Baum.

Mrs. Blair visited her son in the Alameda county jail yesterday, taking him some clothing and delicacies. Blair still claims ignorance of the crime and its attendant circumstances. It is already evident that insanity will be the defense.

OBSERVE SUCCOTH

Observance of the Jewish festival of Succoth, or The Arbor, was opened in Temple Sinai last night with an address by Rabbi Harvey B. Franklin on food conservation, and was attended by an unusually large gathering of the congregation. The festival is in celebration of the harvest, and will continue for eight days, ending with services Sunday night and at 8 o'clock Monday morning. This morning the topic was "The Symbolism of the succth."

A feature of the celebration this year is the launching of a campaign throughout the country for the restoration of a Jewish Palestine at the end of the world war. In the bay district the movement is under the management of committees working under the direction of the Zionist Bureau for the Pacific Coast.

The arbor at Temple Sinai is said by the rabbi to be in many respects unique in the country, and will be open to inspection by the public from 2 to 5 o'clock daily through the period of the festival.

HEAR OF COMING OF NEW CONSUL

Greek residents of the bay cities are discussing with much animation the promises for the future contained in the announcement that within a few days C. Vassardakis, for a number of years Greek consul general for this district, will be supplanted by M. Tsamados, who comes from Greece as the representative of the new Venizelos regime.

Ever since the Exposition, there has been trouble between the Vassardakis faction and those opposed to the consul. On one occasion this trouble threatened to result in a duel as the result of charges made pro and con by an exhibitor in the Greek pavilion and the consul. It is understood that even with his successor really on the way this time, Vassardakis is going to make an effort to retain his position.

Recently the Greek minister of foreign affairs in Athens, M. Politis, announced in the Greek Chamber of Deputies that the new Venizelos regime would signalize its return to power by extending and developing relations with the United States and by giving the first definite recognition to the extensive Greek colonies all over the United States. He submitted several measures to this end, namely the establishment of consul generals at New York, San Francisco and Chicago, consuls at Boston and New Orleans, and some sixty honorary consular positions at places where there are 1000 or 1500 Greeks.

The project also provides for a national fund to be administered by the Greek legation at Washington.

NEW CURE FOR PHTHISIS IS READY TO USE

BERKELEY, Oct. 1.—Taurin, the new tuberculosis cure discovered by chemists of the University of California, is now ready for use in the treatment of human cases, according to an announcement today of Dr. J. P. Merriam, chairman of the committee on scientific research of the State Council of Defense. The serum is procured from abalones and many satisfactory tests have been made with it.

In the experiments conducted in connection with the discovery rabbits and guinea pigs were inoculated with the serum and it has been proved that no poisonous effects are produced when taurin is injected into the blood of man.

Dr. Merriam announced this morning that the scientists of the university were now in a position to begin treatment of human cases. He said it was thought the new serum would prove to be both a preventative and a cure of tuberculosis.

OBREGON HERE TO RAISE LOAN

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 1.—General Gral Alvaro Obregon, former minister of war to President Carranza, who arrived here last night accompanied by prominent Mexican officials and business men, on his way to New York and Washington, is in this country to raise a loan of $500,000,000 from American captalists with the sanction of the American government, for the purpose of rehabilitating Mexican industries and railways and paying of her indebtedness to foreign countries, according to financial men here. Before leaving for the east on Thursday or Friday, General Obregon will have conferences with San Francisco financiers, including Mortimer G. Fleishhacker. General Obregon declared that his visit to the United States was the pursuit of pleasure. It was admitted, however, that when in Los Angeles, the general was waited on by a representative of big financial interests of New York city. The party motored north from Los Angeles as guests of W. J. Lealza, San Francisco steamship owner.

CAR QUITS RAILS

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 1. — Shortly before noon today the motorman on an east bound Folsom street car, crossing Eighteenth street, became frightened at a number of men on the corner whom he believed were about to stone his car, threw on all his power and the car lost the track, bumped into an automobile standing at the curb and thence over the sidewalk into the front of a building. The crew deserted it, leaving the entire front vestibule buried in the lower story of a frame building. There were no passengers.

TO SEEK BACKERS OF LEASE BIDDER

Ready to probe the responsibility of Attorney A. J. Woolsey, successful bidder for the specially drawn lease proposed for the Union Construction Company, the city council today deferred action until tomorrow. At that time Attorney Woolsey has been invited to attend.

Tomorrow's session is scheduled to call forth an ultimatum from the administration forcing the holder of the lease option to indicate who are his backers, with the possible alternative of the council exercising its privilege of throwing out all bids.

Deputy City Attorney William H. O'Brien is investigating the legalities of the contention of members of the Harbor Protective league that the Woolsey grant will be an exclusive one.

W. W. Johnson of the Union Construction Company and Attorney Thomas R. White were present at the council today. Johnson was disconcerted over the failure of the company to obtain the lease, he said, particularly from the standpoint that it had apparently lost a fight after long preparation. As to what further steps would be taken by his company Johnson refrained from commenting.

STORY IS PROBED

Investigation by Police Inspector Tom Wood of the story related by 16-year-old Elizabeth Dober of 1222 East Twenty-eighth street to the effect that she was "kidnaped" while on her way to work at the California Cotton Mills last Saturday morning, has convinced the police, they say, that the girl was drawing largely upon her imagination. Within an hour after she had left home the girl appeared at the home of her grandmother in Berkeley. She said that she had been grabbed by a man in an automobile driven to Berkeley, where she got out of the car. She is unable to describe the car or her alleged abductor except that he had a [illegible] tache."

The girl is said to have been satisfied with her employment for some time. She was returned home.

ANTI-TRUST CASES TO BE UP IN COURT

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 1.—Five big anti-trust cases involving the dissolution of the United States Steel Corporation, the International Harvester Company, the United Shoe Machinery Company and the Lehigh Valley Railroad and the Reading Companies and affiliated coal companies, the so-called anthracite coal trust cases, together with proceedings from four states to test the constitutionality of the draft law, are before the United States supreme court, which reconvened today following the annual summer recess.

The opening today was purely perfunctory, adjournment being taken almost immediately in order to permit Chief Justice White and his associates to pay their customary call on President Wilson. The hearing of arguments on the pending cases will begin tomorrow but court officials do not anticipate any decision being handed down for several weeks.

DRAFT CASES.

Among the first cases disposed of, it is expected, will be those growing out of the enforcement of the draft law. If these were permitted to come up in their regular order, they would not be reached for eighteen months, but Attorney General Gregory plans to ask that they be advanced for early decision. While government officials, and especially those connected with the War Department, feel there is no question about the validity of the law, a decision by the highest court soon would do much to discourage contrary opinion and joy [illegible] manifested in various sections [illegible] street, Bloomfield, [illegible] of auto [illegible] from the decision of Judge Fourteenth Georgia, who upheld the conburglars [illegible] ity of the law and cases from [illegible], Ohio and New York, which those of Emma Goldman and [illegible] Berkman, convicted of at[illegible] to oppose the carrying into ef[illegible] the law by urging men within the [illegible]ages not to register, have been filed. [illegible]re expected to be decided at the [illegible] time.

DATES ARE FIXED.

Dates have not been fixed for the hearing of arguments in the anti-trust suits. These cases were argued last term. Rumors that owing to the war, action on them would be delayed until after peace was declared were met by Chief Justice White ordering them re-argued at this session. The cases stand near the top of the docket and unless delays occur, court officials expect the Harvester and the anthracite trust cases to come up for consideration this month and the others shortly afterwards. This will be the second time the steel and the shoe machinery cases have been argued and the third time for the Harvester and the anthracite suits.

The Harvester case was appealed to the supreme court from the Minnesota federal court, which in 1914, ordered the dissolution of the company and its subsidiary organizations, combining $224,000,000 assets, as being in violation of the Sherman law. The government maintains that the mere combining of competitive traders, voluntary or otherwise into a "preponderant or dominant position" is an industry constitutes in itself a violation of [illegible] law. The defendants claim that a dissolution decree is not justified on the grounds of mere size and power, contending furthermore that the so-called Harvester trust is a "good" combination.

Fanny Ward in New Hit at T. & D.

Fannie Ward, star of innumerable photoplays, Bernhardt of the films, again demonstrated her inimitable versatility and tremendous popularity in the Paramount picture, "On the Level," yesterday at the New T. & D. theater.

"On the Level" is dramatically consuming and interest-sustaining; its action is exciting and tells in tense manner the story of a girl who gives up her husband, wealth, power and position, for the sake of an old sweetheart, saving him from disgrace and death. Teeming with dramatic interest, "On the Level" is proving one of the real photoplay sensations of the present theatrical season.

Besides this exceptionally delightful production, the New T. & D. projected the latest of the interesting Hearst-Pathe News, with its scenes of interest, views of the present battle line, the fighting in the Flanders and other scenes of universal appeal.

Musical settings under the direction of Leander Steckles, in conjunction with Edward M. Bent, organist, at the console of the master Wurlitzer Hope-Jones orchestral organ, were well selected and rendered.

THE PANTAGES OFFERS MERRY BILL

HILARITY RAMPANT AT MACDONOUGH

FUN APLENTY AT THE SHOWHOUSES

Riot of color, crash of mirth, unfettered melody, hilarity rampant—call it what you may. The Macdonough program has it down for George M. Cohan's "Revue of 1916," and lets it go at that. "Revue" it may be; "riot" is better.

There are girls and gowns, giggles and glory, gaiety and gorgeousness. There is Richard Carle and his titillating travesties, tittering and teetering through two long acts. Again, there is a friend of yours, Jane Urban, a worthy foil to Carle's nonsense. Miss Urban, California trained, keeps perfect step to the march of New York cleverness.

There is Ben Linn, who burlesques "The Great Lover" in a way that makes a great laughter out of everyone who watches his antics. There is Percy Bronson—another old friend, by the way—and Orral Humphreys, the Oakland boy who worked from a stock company up to a big motion picture star, and has achieved national recognition as one of the cleverest character actors today.

RETINA DAZZLED.

But there are many stars—so many that the space allotted to this review would be well exhausted were they all to be named and identified. "Mastodonic," a San Francisco paper called the cast. Mastodonic is the word.

And there are costumes—what costumes!

The original wardrobe of the New York production was brought to the Coast for the Revue—carloads of filmy, glittering things, in all the new modes of the present fountain-head of fashions feminine. The pretty girls who sing in the "Merry Merry" gambol through a kaleidoscopic series of changes bewildering and charming to the eye. It's like looking at one of those big new "flasher electric signs" and trying to pick out one color in the maze of hues. The New York producer knows how to strike the optic nerve. And the sensation is unique.

Jane Urban, in the role originally taken by Valli Valli adds her most distinguished triumph to her long series of coast successes. Everyone who has seen her in the past has predicted that she would "do big things" when she reached Broadway. This is her first step in the right direction. How Valli Valli played the role California will never know—but it will see Jane Urban and never care.

ANOTHER OAKLANDER.

Marta Golden, another Oakland girl, who, after Keystoning in the films a bit, appeared in vaudeville with Truly Shattuck, is another star local audiences were interested in—and who made more interest by achievement. She led an Irish number that was a gem. Evelyn Hambly, as "Gaby De Lys," Mark Sullivan, the Irish comedian, Willie Archer, late co-star of Lillian Russell, and a dozen more scored heavily.

Mme. Beenyl, the dancer, had a place all by herself in the brilliant melange—and in it she gyrated into instant favor. One of the cleverest of Persian dancers, she added a novelty that lent a novel, perhaps incongruous, but certainly acceptable touch.

EASY SONGFULNESS.

The musical numbers are mostly lively, mostly very "George Cohan-ish"—as witness "Young America," one of the biggest smashing song hits of the piece. "The Fair and Warmer Cocktail" is another song that the town will be whistling. "Smile, Smile, Smile" is another with a typical Cohan flavor. "He Can Cure You of Love" fits in with the "Dr. Boob-erang" offering. There is a "Pirate Dance," too—what Revue would be complete without it? Only this one is "different."

In fact, the whole show is different, but it is not a difference that calls for an acquired taste like an artichoke. You just sit down, forget troubles, laugh for a while—and then tell your neighbors all about it.

The Cohan Revue will play at the Macdonough all week with matinee Wednesday and Saturday.

CROWD WON BY TENOR

Frank Morrell, who styles himself the "California Boy" and who probably is one, comes out on Pantages stage this week and shakes hands with his audiences. Right away—the minute he comes on—everyone knows it's going to be a "party." Besides all of this, Morrell has a voice of clarity, a few witty and Irish remarks and a manner that makes one like him. He manages to sing a war song of 1898—and get away with it! Which is just a proof of the personal hypnotism he utilizes on his applauding friends "out front."

The dun, horrible and immortal story of "Bill Sikes," the London "roughneck" and "killer," unfolds itself in skilled manner, with Owen McGiveney assuming the roles of the ugly Bill, poor Nancy, Fagin and the Artful Dodger. McGiveney's protean acting is worthy of the name, although his Nancy is unreal. Bill and the Artful Dodger represented real pages from Charles Dickens.

For real Venetian music—no foolin'—and other kinds of melody, too, chalk up victory opposite the name of the Six Venetian Gypsies. Music from their own land is of the popular kind and the American brand is similar. No one need feel a bit backward about applauding this act—it deserves it.

Early and Leight, two middle-aged people with young ideas, manage to get much fun out of the old and time-honored subjects of liquor and married life. What happens when bottles of wine break in the town pump, from which Mrs. Early Leight drinks under the impression that it is pure, crystal water, may be well imagined. A funny couple with funny patter.

Paula, an extra attraction, plays the accordeon and sings equally well. She attempts ballads only and her voice is of a quality just modeled for the sentimental melodies. Quite worth while is Paula.

Claire and Atwood bump themselves about until the audience wonders that they do not raise bumps on the stage and on their own persons. They do much that has been done before and some new things—but they do 'em all well.

Back to back, Reader and Armstrong play two separate grand pianos as they should be played. They try a semi-classical bit now and then but seem to succeed better with quick-steps.

Charming Comedy Is Bishop Offering

Comedy galore, hair-raising situations, the tramp of marching troops, the very atmosphere of the trenches and the funniest farce in years is the Bishop playhouse offering for the week called "Arms and the Girl." Briefly the play is about love and war and intrigue and spies, at the time of the first invasion of Belgium by the German forces.

Ruth Sherwood, an American girl abroad, saves Wilfred Ferres, a fellow traveler, from death as a spy by saying he is her fiance. That there may be no mistake on that point, the German general orders a marriage and it takes place at once. But the real fiance of the girl turns up most inopportunely. They press him into service as a chauffeur with all the complications that might be expected.

All seems smooth sailing for the couple's escape, so that the American girl may secure a divorce from this forced marriage to a man she doesn't love. To obviate a dire calamity Ferrera plans to secure a pass, which is issued to the woman who conducts the hotel, and, garbed in her clothes, makes his escape. Ferrera is finaly shot before he escapes, and is taken to a nearby hospital. In bringing him back to the hotel, Martin's suspicions are aroused as to Ruth's fidelity to him and he leaves, and Ruth decides to remain Mrs. Ferrera.

Film Star in Play at American

Mary Miles Minter in "Charity Castle," now being produced at the American theater, was awarded recognition as being so replete with good humor, charming simplicity and appealing artistry that it is no wonder the charming little star's millionaire benefactor found the ray of sunshine she brought to his home so warm and pleasant that he ceased to describe his home address as a given number of a street, and instead named it for her. The crown princess of the moving pictures never appeared in a more becoming part than as Charity in this sweet, dainty, modern fairy story.

"The Silent Master," with Robert Warwick in the leading role, shows why the police of Paris pigeon-holed all reports of the doings of St. Simon, and would have the forepart of his name removed and a more descriptive one inserted. Paris gayeties and the intricacies of the French capital are shown vividly. John Wharry Lewis and his orchestra continue to please the music lovers.

Alice Joyce and Harry Morey, appearing in "Richard, the Brazen," a drama of a twentieth century knight errant, whose armor is brass and Virginia Pearson in "Wrath of Love" will be shown commencing with Wednesday's matinee until Saturday night.

Battle Scenes On Kinema Screen

Huge and colossal in size, ponderous, almost uncanny in appearance and movement, these British war tanks, which are being shown at the Kinema this week in the Official War Pictures of "The Battle of the Ancre," advance like giant fire-breathing dragons, irresistibly driving the Boche on back to the second lines, bridging trenches, battling their way through barb-wire entanglements, nothing so far conceived on "no man's land" being able to stop them.

These official views give the most concise idea of just how battles are fought and won, with all of the latest equipment conceived by human mind, for after seeing them one has a definite idea of just how every one is made.

Other scenes show the battling for the supremacy of the air between several British planes and a German Taube, when the latter is brought to earth a captive. These scenes are taken thousands of feet in the air amid shell and shrapnel. The rest of the program includes a Keystone comedy, a Paramount [illegible] and the latest News Weekly.

Vilma Steck in Hippodrome Film

"Dago Annie" impersonated by none other than Vilma Steck proved one of the most interesting bits of character work ever presented at the Hippodrome Playhouse this afternoon when "The Romance of the Underworld" in which Miss Steck has a prominent part was given its premier by Director Charles King.

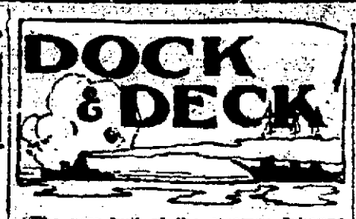
"The Romance of the Underworld," in addition to having a well played and well written plot, had a wealth of character studies in which the players appeared to advantage. Roscoe Karns offered a clever piece of work as the young lawyer and Clayton Smith was better than ever as the hero. Virginia Thornton gave a pleasing interpretation of the heroine.

Others who played above average were Roy Haag, Chauncey Southern, Howard Nugent, Rupert Drum, Frank Cooley, Margaret Nugent, Gladys Kingsbury, and a score of others. The cast in all numbered thirty-five performers each, selected with a view to portraying a particular type and the effect was immense. The play was presented this afternoon to a capacity house.

Notable Films Seen at Franklin

The love story of a schoolmaster who taught the three R's with a shotgun is the feature, "Mountain Dew," at the Franklin theater today and tomorrow. Margery Wilson is given her first opportunity as a star in this play, and her interpretations are quite masterfully portrayed. Young in years, but not young in experience, she has been before the theater-going public for some time. When only 14 years of age she had the honors of seeing the whole of Chicago plastered with posters announcing "The Margery Wilson Players," etc. The character taken in this play is of a mountaineer Squire's daughter who is refused the privilege of "school larnin'" because girls don't have to have an education anyhow. So matters might have stood if it were not for the passing through the regions of a writer.

Rex Ingram wrote a good comedy-drama when he wrote "The Little Terror." But it took the films to enhance it, and so it is with this picture starring Violet Mersereaux, the little girl whose merriment is contagious.



The new hull of the steamer Johanna Smith arrived in Oakland harbor yesterday from Coos Bay in tow of the red stack tug Defiance with a cargo of 1,475,000 feet of lumber and unloaded it at the C. A. Smith Co.'s wharf, then sailed again late last night in tow of the tug Defiance for another cargo.

Ship Star of Alaska, Captain Johnson, arrived home yesterday from Chignik Bay, Alaska, with 59,642 cases of canned salmon. The ship Northern Light also arrived at Oakland from Tacoma, in tow of the tug Tatoosh with 3400 tons of coal for the Western Fuel Co.

The Union Steamship Co. has purchased the steamer Selma and the Santa Maria. The price paid was $90,000. They will be used for the coastwise trade.

The Border Line Transportation Co. has purchased the motor schooner Wakena.

The John Tweedale Packing Co. of San Pedro has been incorporated, and has taken over the United Tuna Packing Co.

FUNERAL HELD FOR DROWNED SAILOR.

Nicolas Thomsen, who was drowned at the Alaska Packers' plant, Oakland harbor, a few days ago, was buried this morning from Alameda. He was born in Norway 31 years ago, and was a member of the Masters' & Pilots' association, which attended the services.

Tomorrow the bark St. Katherine, which went ashore at Unamak Pass on her way to the Alaska cannery, will arrive here in tow of the steam schooner Port Angeles and the cannery tender Lehua.

Steamer Lakme arrived from Caspar yesterday with 457,000 feet of lumber and 300 boxes of apples. The apples are the first of this season to be shipped from Caspar to this port.

Schooner Oakland, which has been ashore at Nehalem, Oregon, since March 23, 1916, has been repaired, and again floated. She is now ready for service again. Her stores and provisions are being sent to her from Portland and the craft will come to her home port, Oakland, which she left 19 months ago.

NEW SCHOONER IS CHARTERED FOR TRADE.

Steam schooner Hartwood has been chartered by the Hind, Rolph Co. to load lumber at a northern port next January and March, for the west coast of South America, for which she will receive the sum of $40 per 1000 for freight. This is considered a good charter, as the freight rates at present for such a run is only $37.50 per 1000.

Charm to Old Homesteads —fragrance to Cigars (both lent by time)

Mount Vernon, the home of Washington, owes much of its charm to the softening, mellowing influence of Father Time.

The OWL and other mellow Cigars owe much of their fragrance to the same mellowing influence of time.

In fact, careful time-curing of selected tobaccos is the big secret behind OWL Cigar fragrance.

And to guarantee every OWL a fragrant OWL requires that a reserve supply of leaf worth $1,000,000 or more be constantly curing. For no leaf must go into the OWL Cigar until OWL curing experts have pronounced it "ready" in OWL mellow fragrance. And it takes Mother Nature and Father Time long months to get OWL leaf to this "ready-point."

Why don't you try an OWL Cigar and see how well it keeps for you the OWL "fragrance-pledge." 5c at the nearest cigar store.

Burns' Home Run Gives Hollis Short End of a Tight Battle

Los Banos Signs Up Bill Leard and Brooks, Determined to Win

Richmond fans were given quite a surprise yesterday at the Richmond ball park. The surprise was a 3-to-1 beating which the Elks received at the hands of the Dairy Maids, who hail from a little town known as Los Banos which is said to be somewhere in Merced County.

Two weeks ago it was announced that Los Banos had disbanded for the remainder of the season, but after Richmond had taken the series from Merced that was expected to determine the State semi-pro title, the Los Banos team was reorganized and the manager of the team demanded that Richmond must beat the Dairy Maids before they could lay claim to the title. Otto Deitrich agreed to play them a series and now his Elks are in grave danger of losing the championship, as a peek at yesterday's line-up of the Dairy Maids will show that the Los Banos people are determined to bring the title to their town.

SIGN STAR PLAYERS

Bill Leard, Sammy Bohne and Clarence Brooks were three of the new men which appeared in the Dairy Maids' line-up yesterday, and it is expected that next Sunday will see several more players of their class added to the line-up, so that the game which would give Los Banos the title may be won.

We will now get back to the ball game which furnished a pitchers' battle between the two old-time rivals, "Babe" Hollis and Artie Benham. Benham came out on the winning side, but he has one Mr. Burns to be thankful to that he was. This gentleman, who holds down left field for the Dairy Maids, put a big dent in the long string of wins made by "Babe" Hollis, when he came up in the second inning after two were out and a man on first as a result of a walk and sent the horsehide for a merry ride over the right field fence for a homer and giving Benham a two-run lead which the Richmondites were unable to overcome.

AUTREY FANS IN PINCH

Both Hollis and Benham got themselves in several tight pinches by their wildness. In the third inning Benham walked Hollis, Menges flied out, Heister doubled to right, sending Hollis to third, and Ward grounded to first. Pfyle walked to fill the bags and it looked bright for Richmond to tie the score with Autrey coming up, and the bags full. But Benham, after making a few hitches in his trousers, went to work and fanned the first-sacker.

Again in the sixth Richmond filled the bags. Schwake singled, Mass was hit by a pitched ball, Christensen walked, Hollis fanned and Menges flew to Burns in left for the third out.

In the seventh the Dairy Maids put over their third run. Sears singled, was sacrificed by Crespi, went to third while Burns was being retired, and scored on a double-steal with Brooks, who had walked. After one was out in the ninth Hollis for Richmond singled, but Menges put an end to a chance for any kind of a rally by hitting into a double play.

The fielding of Sammy Bohne, Leard and Burns for Los Banos and Autrey and Heister for the Elks were the fielding features.

FUN WITH BILL LEARD

The fans had plenty of fun with Bill Leard, who kept making his famous dog growls the entire time he was on the coaching lines. Bill showed more life at this game than he has been known to show in any Coast League games, and made a big hit with the fans who at first tried to get his goat. But Bill was too wise for them and refused to get sore. The same teams will meet next Sunday at Richmond. Score:

Cubs to Play Extra Game to Help Giants Keep in Condition

CHICAGO, Oct. 1. — The Cubs have consented to take an extra mauling this season to keep the Giants in trim for the world series, it was announced today. The game probably will be played here Thursday.

The National League champs will finish their season Wednesday in Philadelphia and will arrive here Thursday morning. Manager McGraw, believing his team will largely face southpaw pitching from the White Sox, has asked Manager Mitchell to use Jim Vaughn in the Thursday exhibition game.

The Cubs are expected to divide the receipts among themselves, as the Giants are expected to waive any interest in the gate receipts because of the physical benefit derived.

Leard, Murphy, And Bodie on Maryland Team

Blankenship Gives Bunch of Youngsters Workout Looking for More Players

Cliff Blankenship, manager of the Maryland Bowlers in the Class A division of the East Bay Winter Baseball league, is going out after a ball club at a pace that promises to make some of the other clubs travel fast. Richmond will stand pat on its club with Babe Hollis as its pitching star, with the exception of a new catcher. Manager Dietrich is trying to get Easterly, for yesterday was Schwake's last game behind the plate for Richmond, and McDonough is too much of an uncertainty in the hitting line against left handers.

But Richmond, with its claim to state semi-pro championship, seems on paper to be the only club which is likely to stand the test against the team Cliff Blankenship is lining up. Already Cliff has secured Clarence Brooks, former Angel, to work behind the plate. Cliff himself will play first base. Bill Leard and Rod Murphy have been signed for infield positions, and although he has not definitely signed him up, Blankenship has fairly good assurance that Ping Bodie will be one of his outfielders.

To fill out his infield and outfield, and also to possibly pick up an extra pitcher, Cliff is now looking over the young players around the bay. He had about thirty of them out at the Bay View field yesterday morning and staged a five-inning scrub game that showed him several promising youngsters. These he will have out for another workout at Fruitvale next Sunday. Cliff is not saying much about his pitcher; he stands a good chance of sending Long Tom Hughes, but he is believed to have something else up his sleeve.

Cliff announced yesterday that he had found at least five youngsters who suit his taste and he will have them out next Sunday morning at Fruitvale, where he will give them another look over before getting them to affix their names to contracts.

Of the five who impressed Blankenship most was Red Lydiatt, the big Money Back Smith pitcher. Lydiatt started on the mound for Blankenship's side against a team raked up by Lou Hennesey, the Northwestern scout, and right at the start he made the Maryland manager fall for him by zipping the ball past the opposing batters so fast that they could hardly see it. Lydiatt worked three innings in which time there was no score made off him.

Slim Nelson then took up the work and pitched one inning and two runs were made off him. He retired in favor of a fellow named Jackson who lost the game for Blankenship by letting Hennesy's boys put over four runs in the final inning, when Cliff's team was leading 4 to 2.

Shannahan and Eicholz were the pitchers for Hennesy's bunch and both failed to show enough to impress Blankenship. Hennesy brought over from San Francisco three players who will report for another trial next Sunday. They are Rose, a second sacker; Kann, a third sacker; and Rattner, a catcher. All three showed up well, particularly Rattner, who gives promise of developing into a high class backstop. He is only eighteen and Blankenship will probably carry him as an extra if he is not a regular.

Oakland Natives Give Allendale Merchants Beating

The Oakland Parlor of Native Sons, with their new manager, Charles Broad in charge, went out to the Allendale grounds yesterday afternoon and gave the Allendale Merchants a 4 to 2 trimming. Honors for the natives' victory must be shared among four members of the team—Menthe, Hanush, Schreiber and Pessano.

Menthe, who started off with the Natives last Sunday by holding the Benicia nine to two hits, came close to accomplishing the same feat against the Merchants. Three hits were all he allowed the hard hitting club of Allendale, who put over their runs in the second and third innings after which time they were helpless, ten of them being turned back on strikes.

With the Merchants leading 2 to 0, Pop Hanush came up in the third inning and busted one of McCarthy's choicest for a homer. Schreiber, who hit one for the circuit at Benicia last week, evened the score by making another home run on a long drive to left field. He also got a single, making him the only player on the team to get more than two blows off McCarthy, who fanned thirteen.

The Natives cinched the game in the seventh when they put over two runs, with the aid of a screeching double by Ed. Pessano, the Natives' shortstop. Score:

YEOMEN BEAT ST. IGNATIUS.

Page of the Yeomen scored a touchdown on a long end run and then kicked the goal to give the Yeomen a 7 to 0 win over St. Ignatius' football team at St. Ignatius field yesterday. The game was the first that the St. Ignatius team has played since adopting the American game.

Kansas City has a pitcher named Karsen, who changed his name to Carlson. His name sounded so much like kerosene that he probably thought he would be expected to burn up the league.

Great Doubles Match Feature Of Tennis Play

Johnston and Marcus Lose Two Sets and Then Make Great Fight for Even Mervyn Griffin failed to put up the showing against William Johnston that was expected on the Claremont courts yesterday and Johnston won the final match in the patriotic tennis tourney men's singles in straight sets, 6-1, 6-2 and 6-1.

The feature match of the day's play was a great battle in the final round of the men's doubles. The match was unfinished on account of darkness and will be decided next Sunday afternoon. William Johnston and William Marcus were pitted against Clyde Curley and Roland Roberts. Curley and Roberts won the first two sets, 6-2 and 8-6. Then the Johnston-Marcus combination seemed to get working and they evened up the match by taking the next two sets, 13-11 and 6-3.

Mrs. Clarissa Mitchell and William Marcus lost the first set in the final round of the mixed doubles to Azel Gravem and Mrs. J. C. Cushing, but they came back strong and took the next two sets and match, 1-6, 6-3, 6-2.

Following is a summary of the day's play:

Men's singles, final round—William Johnston defeated Mervyn Griffin, 6-1, 6-2, 6-1.

Men's doubles, semi-final round—C. J. Curley and Roland Roberts defeated Elmer and Mervyn Griffin, 8-6, 6-3.

Mixed doubles, final round—Mrs. Clarissa Mitchell and William Marcus defeated Mrs. J. C. Cushing and A. B. Gravem, 1-6, 6-2, 6-1.

Grover Alexander Is Close to Equalling Mathewson's Record

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Grover Alexander, the Phillie star, may have missed the chance to add another record to his brilliant line of achievements. He attempted Saturday and lost the game that would have been his thirtieth victory in 1917, had he won it, and would have tied the record hung up by Christy Mathewson when he won more than thirty games for three years in succession.

Alexander still has a slim chance to attain that topmost peak. The season is not over yet and today and Tuesday remain on the Philadelphia program. He has to face the Giants if he puts it over. Mathewson is the only man ever to reach the thirty mark in three successive years. Jack Coombs passed that pinnacle point on only one occasion. Eddie Plank, Chief Bender and Rube Waddell watched it from the distance.

Alexander nicked off thirty-one wins in 1915 and came through with thirty-three in 1916. He now owns a record of twenty-nine games. Cy Young never was able to pass the thirty mark for more than two consecutive years.

World Record Set in Idora 500-Yard Swim

Claire Galligan Clips One Second and a Half From Time of Fannie Durack

Claire Galligan of New Rochelle, N. Y., set a new world's mark for the 500-yard swim in the national title race at Idora Park yesterday afternoon. She clipped one and one-half seconds from the time of Fannie Durack, the wonderful swimmer of Australia. The new record for the distance stands at 7 minutes 31 2-5 seconds. Miss Durack's record, established March 28, 1915, was 7 minutes 32 3-5 seconds.

Close on the heels of the new world champion came Miss Dorothy Burns of Los Angeles, swimming that perfect crawl stroke of her's, and finishing not 9 seconds behind Miss Galligan. Miss Burns is credited with having broken the American record for the 500 yards.

The crown goes to Miss Galligan for two records, however, the American and the world's record. Frances Cowells of San Francisco placed third in yesterday's race.

The great crowd of spectators went wild with excitement when the record-breaking swim was announced. They cheered Miss Galligan heartily and applauded the other two plucky mermaids.

It was a great race from start to finish. Miss Galligan, however, proved her superiority at every angle of the contest. She kept her head. She swam cool and calmly and easily. She made the turns perfectly. She never slowed up but remained at a steady pace. Miss Burns is credited with a splendid swim. Her form was perfect but she could not keep pace with the powerful stroke of Miss Galligan.

The timers who held the stop-watches on Miss Galligan yesterday were Walter Christie of the University of California; P. G. Whitaker, noted swimming instructor, and William Unmack, an official of the P. A. A. and a recognized swimming authority. William Coffman directed the race as referee. The judges were Walter Spencer, William Backrath of the Illinois Athletic Association and Robert Love.

A request has gone forward from the timers to the national records' committee of the A. A. U. asking that Miss Galligan's time be officially recognized.

Norman Ross Adds Another Record to His Long Win-String

Norman Ross has dropped back into his old habits of making new records and today has the 50-yard coast record added to his long string as a result of his work at Neptune Beach yesterday. He won the 50-yard event in 24 seconds, which is two-fifths of a second better than the time made by Duke Kahanamoku at Sutro Baths several years ago.

Ross also won the 100-yard free style event, and also the 100-yard back strike. Powell of the Stockton Neptune Club gave Ross a great battle in the latter event, but could not keep the pace set by the champion.

George Cunha took the twenty-five yard dash in competition with Grace and Goodman. Cunha covered the distance in ten and four-fifths seconds.

Following are the results of yesterday's races at Neptune:

25-yard dash—First, George Cunha, unattached; second, Walter Grace, Piedmont Athletic Club; third, Sandy Goodman, Los Angeles Athletic Club. Time, 10 4-5 seconds.

25-yard dash for juniors—First, Dick Julien, Olympic Club; second, John Daly, O. C.; third, Eugene Holtkamp, Piedmont A. C. Time, 11 3-5 seconds.

100-yard dash, free style—First, Norman Ross, O. C.; second, D. Leslie Jones, Illinois Athletic Club; third, Walter Grace, P. A. C. Time, 56 3-5 seconds.

50-yard dash, free style—First, Norman Ross, O. C.; second, George Cunha, unattached; third, D. Leslie Jones, Illinois Athletic Club. Time, 24 seconds. (New Pacific Coast record.)

100-yard backstroke swim—First, Norman Ross, O. C.; second, James Powell, Neptune Swimming Club of Stockton; third, Albert Stoll. Time, 1:15.

By H. C. HAMILTON,
United Press Staff Correspondent.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—The statement made by Clarence Rowland, manager of the White Sox, that his real "pitching staff" consisted of two men, may be a prediction that only that many men will be used by the erstwhile "pusher" in his battle to trim John McGraw for the world championship.

It is certainly a fact that Eddie Cicotte will start the first game in Chicago Saturday, but there is nothing certain about who will pitch the second. If Cicotte should win, it is probable "Red" Faber, another right-hander, will be sent against the Giants. If Cicotte should lose, it is safe to predict that "Reb" Russell will get the assignment. Taking Rowland at his word, then it is equally safe to say that Cicotte will work the third game—in New York—and that his successor on the mound for the fourth game will be the man who pitched the second game in Chicago.

There is a certain degree of uncertainty in such deductions, for the man to pitch the second game might take such a drubbing as to make it certain he would not come back for the fourth game. There is no such uncertainty in the case of Cicotte, however. It is almost a foregone conclusion that the veteran right-hander will pitch a good game and, even if he should lose, it is easy to see he will go back again.

The man who pitches the first game—both for New York and Chicago—will have a chance at the third contest, for there will be Sunday and Monday intervening between the first and third games.

John McGraw's statements that Slim Sallee will open for him must be taken at its face value. Rowland and his men believe Sallee will give them the toughest opposition. However, the Sox have been successful against southpaws of Sallee's disposition, while righthanders of the mould of Poll Perritt have been reasonably successful against the new American league champions. In New York there is a feeling that Perritt or Rube Benton will open the series, with the other of the pair to pitch the second game. It is not seriously believed that Ferd Schupp will start a game until the home crowd is rooting behind him.

The White Sox wind up their season today in New York and will start west, pausing at Cleveland to play an exhibition game and then going to Chicago to play another with the same club.

...EST CHANCE TO STOP THE SEALS LOST LAST WEEK

Hen Berry's Bunch Now Looks Safe For 1917 Pennant Honors

...aks Take Six Out of Seven From Bees And Have First Division Chance

By CARL E. BRAZIER

Only four weeks to go in the 1917 Coast League season—the Seals enjoying a lead of two games and a half and having the tail-end Vernon Tigers to pick on this week, while the Oaks do battle with the second-place Angels—this seems merely another way of saying that it looks as though the chance to crowd Hen Berry's San Francisco Seals out of the 1917 flag has passed. For the Seals have three of the four remaining weeks on their bay lots and they do not meet the Angels again this year. That disposes of their toughest club.

The Angels also have three of the remaining weeks on their home lot, but they figure to have a far tougher time with the Oaks this week than the Seals are likely to have with the Tigers. So the Seals look due to open up their two and a half game lead to still bigger proportions by the end of this series, and with three weeks to go after this one, it looks as though the Seal lead by the end of this week should be big enough to carry them through.

Only twenty-eight games remain on the Coast League schedule for each club. If the Angels win half of their twenty-eight, the Seals need to win only twelve games. And with Del Baker about ready to get into action this week behind the bat for the Seals, and with "Spider" Baum ready to return to action on the firing line, it is hard to figure where the Seals can miss winning twelve of their remaining games. Also it is hard to figure how the Angels are going to win more than half of their remaining games with the Oaks, Bees, Tigers and Beavers to face in the order named in the next four weeks.

SECOND PLACE BATTLE.

The Bees and Beavers are practically out of the running in the pennant chase and the Coast League race from now on looks like a battle for second place with the Angels, Bees and Beavers in the running, and the Oaks as possible contenders if they can keep up the form they showed last week against the Bees. The Bees are four games behind the Angels, and six and a half games behind the Seals. To win the pennant the Bees would have to win two games a week more than the Seals. The Beavers are but a game and a half behind the Bees and the series in the north this week should be a pretty battle for third place. If the Bees win of yesterday afternoon pulls the Bees out of their slump, it should be an even battle, but on the form the Bees showed here last week they should be in the second division, and even in danger of dropping into fifth place by the time another week rolls around.

All the clubs broke even in yesterday's doubleheaders, the afternoon win for the Bees giving them their only win of the seven game series against the Oaks. The Angels took four out of seven from the Seals, which was hardly enough of a margin to spoil the Seal's chances for the present. The Beavers took five out of seven from the Tigers and gave Portland fans visions of finishing in the first division.

OAKS KEEP ON HITTING.

The Oaks kept up their wild hitting in both games yesterday and if Ray Kremer had not had one bad inning in the afternoon session they might have come through with a clean sweep of seven wins. In the morning the Oaks hit Ollie Kirmayer ... for three innings and chased him in the fourth after they had built up a lead that was good for a 6 to 3 win. Happy Goodbred hurled a great game, allowing only six hits.

In the afternoon the Oaks took a one-run lead in the first frame on hits by Middleton, Murphy and Miller against Jean Dubuc. With Ray Kremer pitching three hit ball for seven innings, the Oaks held that lead safe until the eighth, when Tobin's infield hit started trouble. A sacrifice and hit batter followed, Ryan's single chased home Tobin and on the throw to the plate the two Bee runners moved up to second and third. Karl Crandall got back into the form of a few weeks ago when he was breaking up ball games quite regularly, and he hooked a single into short left that chased home the two runs. In the ninth Miller's single, an infield out, and Arlett's single, put the Oaks within one run of a tie score, but Arlett missed a chance to steal and Murray bit at a wide one for a third strike and the chance was over.

POP ARLETT GOING RIGHT.

When Murray fanned in the ninth inning, every player on the Salt Lake club dropped prostrate to the ground for a full half minute. Their losing streak had been broken and they could not stand the shock.

Pop Arlett's ninth inning hit that chased in an Oak run was but one of several instances during the week where Arlett showed that he is of some value to the Oaks. As a pitcher, Arlett has been of no use to the club during the season, but the shortage in Oak players that called Eddie Mensor out into the field and left Arlett a chance to get on second also gave him the opportunity to show his class as an infielder. It begins to look as though Arlett would be wise to forget his pitching ambitions and stick to infield work. He has improved every day in his work around second, and his hitting is enough to make him valuable.

BAUM IN FORM AGAIN.

Erickson failed to stop the Angels in the morning game yesterday, but Spider Baum got into action and showed that he is now ready for regular work when he hurled the Seals to a 4 to 1 win in the afternoon. The Angel win in morning was a 6 to 3 score, with Doc Crandall allowing only six hits, while Erickson was being bumped freely. By the time Gregory finished the game in the eighth, the Angels had piled up eleven hits. In the afternoon Baum allowed only five hits while the Seals were bumping Curley Brown thirteen times.

The Beavers and Tigers split the day's honors in their double-header in the north. The Beavers gave Houck ragged support in the first game and the Tigers won a gift game, 4 to 3. But in the second game Slagle and Hovlik had nothing to fool the Beavers and they won in a walk, 10 to 4.

Santa Clara Defeats Palo Alto Ruggers

SANTA CLARA, Oct. 1.—The Palo Alto athletic team went down to defeat on the football gridiron of the Santa Clara university yesterday afternoon, to the tune of 21 to 3. When the play first started it looked as though the visitors were going to have the best of the tiff, or would at least hold the Missionites even. But soon the condition and the clean play of the local aggregation overcame the rushes of the visitors. The Poly team had a strong line-up and put up a fine game. There were many great plays by the Collegians, particularly the two classy passing rushes, both of which resulted in scores. After a try bi Scholz, Templeton kicked from the middle of the field. Bill Muldoon nabbed the sphere and passed it to Korte, who passed it to Vicini, who, after a short run, passed it to Done, from where it went to Diaz, who scored.

In the first half Templeton kicked off for the Stanfordites, but the ball remained in Santa Clara territory. The play soon moved into Pally ground, when Garcia picked it from a double passed to Lebonwean, to Scholz, who tallied. For the best part of that half the ball was drilled back and forth by both teams with good results. O'Connor picked the ball out of the ruck at the 10-yard limited and scored. The P. A. forwards came to the line and Chandler fell on the ball. Dick Templeton failed to convert. For the remainder of that half both teams did good work in both dribles and passing rushes.

In starting off the second half John Muldoon kicked off, but as he did not go on the 5 yards a scrum was called in the middle of the field. The ball was rushed to the 5-yard line by the Santa Clara crowd. From a scrum Dias passed to Korte, to Dana, who scored in the corner of the field. Jackson failed to convert. Scholz made another nice run after receiving the ball from Dias, for a try, Jackson converted. Dumpy Dias scored, after a long passing rush. Mantelli scored two tries after short passing rushes. Jackson bagged two out of the last three tries. The line-up:

MILLER .302; MURPHY .300.

Morris Rath dropped two points in his hitting against Oak pitchers last week, but he still holds the lead in Coast League individual batting records. The Salt Lake third sacker is batting .338 to date with Justin Fitzgerald running second at .336. Tobin of the Bees is next among the regulars at .322. Bassler, Williams, Schaller, Griggs, Ryan, Meusel, Wilie, Hack Miller and Hannah are the other better than .300 hitters. Hack Miller is hitting .302—a jump of seven points in one week. Rod Murphy also jumped six points and is batting .300 to date. Stumpf at .278 and Arlett at .266. Middleton .265, are the next best Oak hitters.

Billy Lane has been out of the game for a week with a sprained ankle and probably will be out another week. But he still holds the lead as best base-stealer in the league with fifty-six thefts. Williams of Portland is next with 52; Meusel and Pick have each stolen 51 bases. Hollocher is closing in on Tobin for run-making honors; Tobin's two runs yesterday keep him out in front with 126 runs scored to date; Hollocher has scored 124 times.

Williams of Portland knocked out another home run yesterday to boost his string to 25. Sheeley of Salt Lake, with 14, is his nearest rival.

Iron Works Soccer Champs Are Favorites

The champion Union Iron Works' soccer team is again a favorite in the soccer league as a result of its showing yesterday afternoon on the Croll grounds in Alameda in the opening game of the season. The Iron Works' team put up all kinds of action in defeating the Argonauts, 6 to 2.

The Argonauts are made up of young players who lack the experience of the champion team, but they put up a good showing for the first half only to weaken in the second half. Other games in the league yesterday resulted as follows: Thistles 3, Rangers 1. Barbarians 1, Celtics 1, Olympics 1, Burns 1.

Red Lydiatt Hurls Clothiers to a Win In Closing Season

The Money Back Smiths closed their season's play yesterday afternoon by trimming the Brooklyn Parlor of Native Sons by a 2 to 1 score in a fast and interesting game. Again it was big Red Lydiatt who was responsible for the clothiers' victory. The big fellow held the Natives to four hits, fanned ten, issued but one base on balls, and could have scored a shutout if Corbett had not hesitated in throwing a ball to the plate to catch a runner.

The Money Backs scored their runs in the eighth inning. Barney, who had a great fielding day at short, connected for one of McDonald's shoots for a triple and scored when Cline came through with a single. Cline after getting to third on an out and an error, stole home with the run that won the game. Joe McDonald pitched a fine game for the losers and had perfect control, not a free pass to first being issued by him, but Lydiatt on the other hand was just a little better than him. The score:

THE SECOND LIBERTY LOAN

Today the United States Government asks the citizens of the country to subscribe for the second Liberty Loan. The period during which purchases of this block of government securities runs is until October 27. The issue will be $3,000,000,000, with the understanding that 50 per cent of the subscriptions in excess of this sum will also be accepted.

The loan will bear interest at 4 per cent, payable semi-annually, and both principal and interest will be exempt from all municipal, State and government taxes except the federal supertax on incomes and the excess profits tax. It is expected that the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco will announce shortly the amount each community is expected to subscribe for. If the allotment of the first Liberty Loan, under which Alameda and Contra Costa counties were asked to take $9,000,000, was correctly based, the allotment of the two counties under the present loan will be $13,500,000.

For the man who has savings to invest, and whose income is not sufficient to make him liable to the income supertax and the excess profits tax, these bonds are more desirable than the first liberty bonds, which yield only 3½ per cent interest. The first bonds were quoted last week at a premium of 16 cents on the $100. For the investor who enjoys a large income the new issues are equally desirable; they are exempt from the ordinary taxes of the State and federal governments, and liable only to a share of the taxation levied to help defray the expenses of the war.

Aside from these considerations the patriotic duty of every citizen to buy as many bonds as he can afford is as urgent, if not more so, as it was with the first issue of war bonds. Quick and enthusiastic response to the nation's request for loans will be of vital assistance in waging the war, and peace can be brought nearer only by the efficient prosecution of the war with the united support and resources of the people. It is the first and the imperative duty of every citizen to serve the nation in whatever way he can.

By the time the final payment of subscriptions to the new loan are due and paid two million of America's young men will be under arms, fighting and ready to fight in defense of their country on the field of battle. Those who remain at home must aid the nation by permitting the use of their dollars on safe security and for a reasonable return of profits. They cannot loyally do less.

STAGE LINE REGULATION.

If there was any doubt about the status of the motor stage line, or "jitney bus," as a common carrier it was formally disposed of Friday when the California State Railway Commission inaugurated its active regulation of these vehicles in a number of decisions. Five permits were issued by the commission to jitney owners operating between towns in San Mateo and Santa Clara counties and two requests for authority to operate were denied.

One projected jitney stage line was denied the privilege to run because the commission found that adequate transportation service already existed along the proposed route. Jitney lines already established had opposed the request because a new law would be injurious competition.

The other denial was due to the disapproval of the commission of the jitney drivers' proposed method of financing their enterprise. It was planned to issue $25,000 of capital stock to purchase the property of another stage line, but the commission investigated and found that the property desired was not worth that sum.

From these decisions it appears that the commission has adopted a policy which is calculated to afford much desired protection to the public. It prohibits the establishment of unnecessary lines, guards against unsound financing and prescribes schedules, fixes the rates of fare and specifies the route. Safeguards against accident and financial responsibility for damages which may be suffered by the public are also receiving consideration.

Thus the jitney in inter-city traffic takes its place as a recognized public utility and it is presumed that it will be subject to local taxation in the same manner that other utilities are. If this is so the electric and steam railways will not have much ground for complaint against the motor lines.

JAPAN'S MONROE DOCTRINE.

Three factors combine to give great importance to the statement in New York City Saturday by Viscount Ishii of the policy of the Japanese government with reference to China and toward other world powers interested in the course of affairs in the Far East.

First—Viscount Ishii is a leader among Japanese statesmen and diplomats. A former prime minister, an acknowledged authority on international politics and a trained diplomatist, he was selected by his government to head a diplomatic mission to the United States. Second—The object of this mission is to bring complete clarity to the relations between Japan and the United States, especially with reference to the present war and its probable outcome and possible results; to remove all misunderstandings, and dissipate all suspicion and misgivings. Third—All the great world powers, and especially the United States, have long desired to be enlightened as to the intentions of Japan with reference to Far Eastern questions which concerned them. They were waiting for Ishii's word.

Fully cognizant of all these circumstances it must be presumed that Viscount Ishii formulated his statement with studious precision. He would be careful to commit no errors or ambiguities, and aim at an exposition of Japan's policy which would require no retraction and a minimum of elaboration. Mindful of the fact that his remarks would be the latest authoritative word on one of the most important phases of international relations, he would see to it that they would stand the tests of criticism. Referring to Japan's China policy, he said:

"Circumstances for which we were in no sense responsible gave us certain rights to Chinese territory, but no time in the past did we and at no time in the future will we seek to take territory from China, or despoil China of her rights. We wish to be and always will continue to be the sincere friend and helper of our neighbor, for we are more interested than anyone else except China in good government there."

This is a reassurance for which China and the Western powers properly may be grateful. The "certain rights" to territory which Viscount Ishii mentions evidently are those which Japan obtained as a third party—the territory over which Russia and Germany at one time asserted sovereignty. China acquiesced in the transfer of rights and no other nation has ever offered legitimate objection. Furthermore, it is a guarantee that Japan will never again repeat the demands she made on China in 1915.

The following is a notice to the world, and was so intended:

"We must at all times, for self-protection, prevent other nations from doing what we have no right to do. We not only will not seek to assail the integrity of the sovereignty of China, but will eventually be prepared to defend and maintain the integrity and independence of China against any aggressor. For we know that our own landmarks would be threatened by any outside invasion or interference in China." Yet, "the door is always open; it always has been open; it always must remain open" to commercial interests. "I assure you that a closed door in China has never been and never will be the policy of my government. The door is open; the field is there."

Herein is an exposition of a new world policy that will vastly influence the future of political, economic and commercial affairs in the Pacific Basin. It is Japan's "Monroe Doctrine" for East Asia. Its description does not materially differ from the Monroe Doctrine of the United States for the Western Hemisphere.

What nation can object to it? Only the land-grabbers, those seeking new colonies! These do not include the United States. This country, in view of the positive assurances that Japan will not infringe upon Chinese sovereignty nor violate her rights, cannot fail unhesitatingly to approve this policy, with a sense of relief. All that we wish, and have ever asked for, is the open door for commercial opportunity; the appearance on the western Pacific shore of an adequate and honest champion of China's political integrity brings a sense of security that could not have arisen from any other source, indeed, which would have been impossible by any other means in which Japan did not wholeheartedly acquiesce.

Assuming that this statement by the official spokesman of the Japanese government is the result of a definite understanding between the Japanese and American government, an assumption abundantly justified by recent events, it is highly probable that it marks a new and more promising epoch in America's relation to the rest of the world. The enunciation and acceptance of Japan's "Monroe Doctrine" for China as the basis of a mutual understanding, which need not be formally expressed, between Japan and the United States for the maintenance of the political status quo of the Pacific.

In such an understanding there will be safety for each country and for China and an inspiration for an international friendship which no European enemy or mischief-maker, nor the jingoes and traitors in either country, will have the power to disturb. It will constitute the only possible foundation for permanent peace.

Every time news of a further reduction in the price of flour is published the master baker explains how impossible it is to reduce the price of bread. After the federal food administration completes its task of showing the producers and millers how to be patriotic it will have time for the baker and retailer

NOTES and COMMENT

A San Francisco calamity chemist has predicted a gasoline famine. When it is learned that disaster can be averted by the government going into the refining business with a new process that the chemist has discovered, the scare is not likely to be as hysteric as it might be.

* * *

The extreme caution characterizing the news as to the battleship that is aground "in home waters" must be due to some more of our curious censorship. It could not greatly advantage the enemy if the exact location of the vessel's grounding were given, together with all particulars.

* * *

Inter-city amenities, exemplified by the Redding Searchlight: "Marysville is all smiles and joy this week. The city is entertaining a convention of undertakers."

* * *

From the Santa Rosa Republican and suggestive of sarcasm: "Los Angeles Times, which is famous for interesting information, some of which is so, has made the remarkable discovery that the United States will expend for candles during the present year the sum of twenty million dollars. Which can be explained only upon the ground that there is a famine in Greenland and our government is making a big appropriation for relief."

* * *

The two Congressmen who indulged in warlike acts were too far from the firing line to make their performance impressive in these martial times.

* * *

Not infrequently we read of huskies doing something to themselves to reduce their physical fitness and thus qualify for exemption; but it is not often that we read of cripples, already disqualified, committing suicide because they are likely to be exempted. Such an instance is reported from Milbrae.

* * *

Tripodial amenities in the San Joaquin, exemplified by the Tracy Press: "Editor Hoffman of the Patterson Irrigator was in Tracy Monday noon, on his way home after a campaign of publicity for his popular song, 'In the Valley of the San Joaquin.' We missed the genial gentleman of slim physique, because we were at lunch. Hoffman don't eat, or at least that is the impression one would get at a glance, so it don't bother him a bit to be out calling at lunch time, but we editors who do eat miss him that way."

How monotony is relieved at Stockton, according to the Mail: "One of the good things about life are the days when we think we are going to do the same old things we did yesterday and last week and right along, and somebody comes with an automobile and invites us to do something else."

Item from the Bakersfield Echo that may be informing in more ways than one: "By attending the Neylan luncheon today you will hear a very interesting dissertation on the food conservation question. Mr. Neylan has conferred recently with Mr. Hoover, the national food guardian.

SPIRIT OF THE STATE PRESS

Harvey Blackwell of Rocklin has been employed by the war department to purchase horses for use in the army. He is seeking animals throughout the county at present, paying good prices for good draft horses. Many farmers are selling stock rather than keep it through the winter, expecting that feed will be high and scarce.—Sacramento Union.

Governor Stephens and his private secretary, Martin Madsen, have many heavy and many delicate problems. We read that not the least of these is the necessity of finding out why so many eggs are broken in shipment. Madsen said the governor's attention has been called to the great waste of eggs in transit and that he has instructed the Railroad Commission to make a thorough investigation. If such a condition exists the governor has ordered the commission to use its power to bring about a change. Perhaps if the hens were required to lay eggs with no-breakable shells the governor would be relieved from this special labor in behalf of conservation.—Stockton Mail.

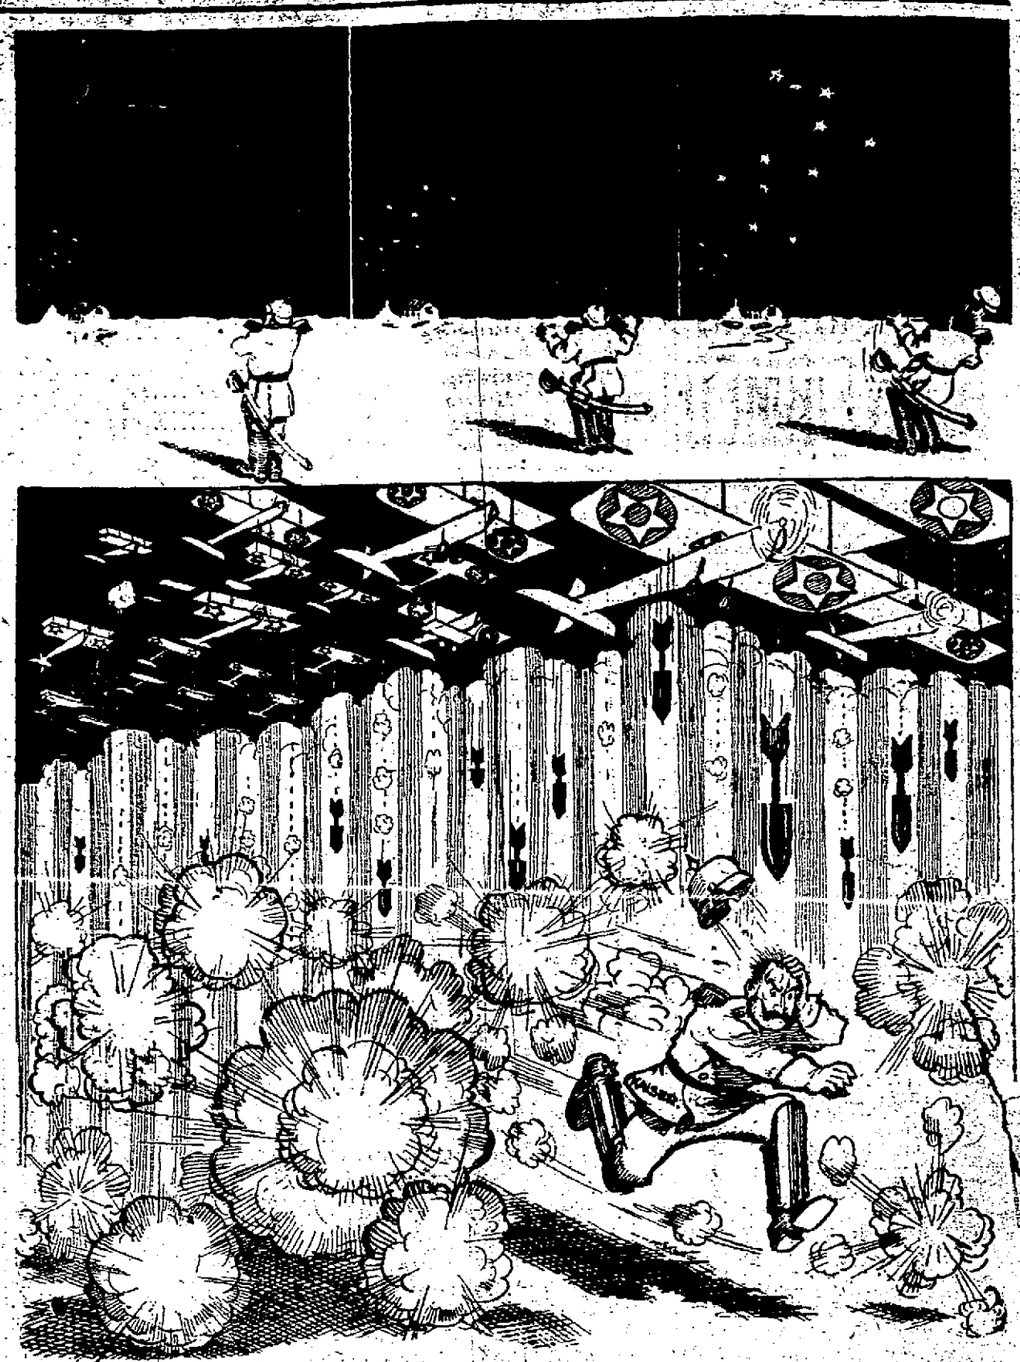
The Times congratulates Billy Sunday on his success in guiding 4075 sinful Angelenos along the sawdust trail to a point where they can get a view of the gates of the heavenly city and no longer entertain apprehensions of being compelled to locate in a place where the thermometer goes up as those who gaze upon it go down.—Los Angeles Times.

Friends of George G. Radcliffe, editor of the Evening Pajaronian, and superintendent of the Capitol grounds at Sacramento, are urging him to enter the race against Congressman E. A. Hayes. He was one of Senator Johnson's right-hand men when he was governor of the State.—San Jose News.

James W. Foley, poet-humorist, who has volunteered his services to the national war work council of the Y. M. C. A. to entertain the soldiers in army Y. M. C. A. headquarters, has made a strange discovery at Camp Fremont, Palo Alto, Cal. He found a sergeant who has served twenty-six years in the regular army, of German birth, born in Alsace Lorraine, yet who cannot go across the ocean with the other troops because of his nativity.—Colusa Sun.

War has made its inroads into the big family of employees at Hotel del Coronado. A number volunteered. The draft took many others. And now Bill Banks and Rene Farron, captains in the big dining-room, plan to join the boys at the front. Banks, who was French born and is an American citizen, enlisted Friday at the British recruiting office, expressing his preference for the Canadian branch of the service. He was in the city yesterday facing the army medicos. Farron, a Frenchman, who has taken out his first papers, also will enlist under the British colors.—San Diego Union.

STARS AND STRIPES



THE FATE OF CHINA

The Chinese are beginning to rise to the emergency. They are developing a national patriotism, a trait said by keen observers of only a decade ago to be totally lacking. The nation-wide resentment roused by Japanese demands of 1915, the rapid growth in influence, circulation and dignity of a patriotic daily press, the phenomenal and almost pathetic eagerness with which the educated class has recently listened to the plea for a higher individual and national righteousness from native and foreign representatives of the Christian church, all point to a growing love for country, an unflinching self-examination, and a determination to reform. The Chinese race may react too late for its immediate salvation. It may for a time come under the domination of foreigners. It may be split asunder. But all that has happened to China many times before. The conviction grows that again in the future, as so many times in the past, the Chinese race will finally assert itself, and will have a new birth of national and individual freedom and reach new heights of achievement.

The Japanese may for a time dominate their huge neighbor, as they now seem about to do; but, speaking from the standpoint of the centuries, they will be thrown off or absorbed as other conquerers have been. The important question is, What would be the effect of years of alien domination? Would China be transformed by her masters, or by her own effort to regain her independence, from a peace-loving, essentially democratic people, willing to co-operate with a league of free nations into a militaristic, autocratic state that seeks to wreak its vengeance on its enemies by mastering Asia and terrorizing the world? The hope for the immediate future seems to lie in a joint protectorate by a league of the stronger nations. Such a protectorate should be benevolent, not selfish, guaranteeing independence and the open door, and should seek to aid China to get on her feet politically and industrially. Americans should prepare themselves to join intelligently with all the great powers, including Japan, to obtain this end. Any other course seems to mean added danger for China and civilization.—Kenneth Scott Latourette in the October Yale Review.

AN ENTERPRISING OFFICE BOY.

A foreign book contains an interesting anecdote that Baron de Reuter told to the author:

"I had just made a start in London," said the founder of the famous news agency, "and had gone to eat a modest lunch, when my little office boy, who had been told where to find me, rushed in breathlessly to say that a gentleman had called to see me—a foreign-looking gentleman, he added.

"Why did you let him go?" I exclaimed. "I would have come around at once to see him."

"Please, sir, I didn't," was the reply. "He is still at the office. I've locked him in!"

And so one of Reuter's earliest and most prized subscribers was secured. The resourceful office boy subsequently became secretary and later a director of the company.—The Youth's Companion.

EW HEAD FOR NFIRMARY IS CONFIRMED

That rumors of disagreement between the Alameda County Institutions Commission and the Board of Supervisors over suggested changes in the county infirmary are baseless and that there will be continued harmony between the two bodies was indicated this morning when the Supervisors quietly adopted a resolution appointing Dr. Robert M. Manson as resident physician at a salary of $100 a month and maintenance, "subject to competitive civil service examination when advertised at the request of the Commission." Nothing was said about the suggestion made several weeks ago by the Commission that Dr. Minora Kibbe be removed from her position as visiting physician for women, and it is not likely that such action will be taken.

The only hint of disagreement came when a resolution was read reducing the salary of James Dignan, storekeeper, from $125 and maintenance to $125 without maintenance.

"I object to the passage of this resolution," declared Supervisor Heyer. "I don't believe that a man should be practically thrown out in the street like this, for that is what it means. He cannot live and support his family on that salary without maintenance. I think we had better give this matter further consideration."

The resolution was referred to the committee of the whole for consideration.

FUNDS VOTED.

At the request of Mrs. Duncan McDuffie, an additional allowance of $200 from the advertising fund was voted for the use of the Alameda County Board of Public Welfare in the preparation and publication of the Directory of Social Workers and Institutions now being compiled. The petitioner explained that one thousand copies of this directory are to be sent to the leading universities, principal cities and to libraries, and that more money would be needed for the printing of that number.

Contracts for the furnishing and equipment of the new Tuberculosis Hospital were awarded as follows: Nathan Dohrmann Company, 41 items; A. Schleuter and Company, 19 items; Pek & Hills, 3 items; Frank H. Zambresky, 3 items; C. F. Weber, 3 items; Jackson Furniture Company, 2 items; Schleuter & Beecher, 1 item. The contract for furnishing meat to the county infirmary from October 2 to December 31 was awarded to [illegible] Brothers.

Iron Works Head Is "Held Up" When He Meets Guard

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 1.—United States marines on guard at the Union Iron Works are smoking expensive cigars today and John A. McGregor, president of the big shipbuilding company, has an added respect for the vigilance of the men whose slogan is "First to Fight."

And all the result of the fact that yesterday McGregor approached too close to the company's property before disclosing his identity. McGregor was on his way to his office when he found himself confronted by a determined appearing private of marines behind the barrel of an army Springfield.

"You'll have to get off the sidewalk," said the marine, and without explaining his identity McGregor took to the street, and it was not until the cigars were received that the marine knew whom he had held up.

AKED TO DESCRIBE ARMENIAN TRAGEDY

Enlightenment on the complicated Near East question and of the mistreatment by the Turks of Armenians, Greeks, Syrians and Jews will be given by Dr. Charles F. Aked in his lecture, "War Conditions in Turkey," in the Oakland Municipal Auditorium tonight. The public is invited and there will be no charge for admission, the use of the Auditorium having been granted by the city council. Rev. A. W. Palmer of the Plymouth Congregational Church, now enlisted in army Y. M. C. A. work at the Presidio, will preside. Boy Scouts will be ushers. Members of the city council have accepted an invitation to attend.

Dr. Aked is well known on the Pacific coast. He has been engaged for a lecture tour in Western cities to give publicity to the terrible conditions facing Armenians, Syrians, Greeks and Jews in the war-stricken region. Known as one of the most eloquent orators in this country, Dr. Aked will present a graphic word-picture of Turkish barbarities and of the many problems facing the peoples in the countries of the Near East.

Richard Famariss, Edward Murillo and Antone Silva, who have been serving since June 4 as range fire patrolmen at a salary of $85 a month were dropped from the county payroll, the resolution taking effect October 10. The reason given for their removal was that there is no further need for their services.

TO HOLD AUCTION.

A public auction sale on October 8 at the court house of the old buildings on the site of the new County Infirmary at Fourteenth avenue and Vallecito Place was authorized by resolution.

For the completion of the new road over Altamont Pass, a contract is to be signed with Christine Carroll, whereby she agrees to exchange new rights of way for the old ones which are to be abandoned. Two viewers or arbitrators are to decide whether the owner is to be allowed any compensatory damages in the exchange.

APPEAL IS LOST

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 1.—The City of Richmond and the North American Dredging Company of Nevada, co-defendants, lost their appeal to the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the right to build a canal across the tidelands of William Mintzer, deceased, in a decision handed down by Judge Hunt this morning, concurred in by Justices Gilbert and Ross.

On April 19, 1915, the dredging company started work on a canal 80 feet wide, 8 feet deep and 4000 feet long from the south channel of the San Pablo canal for the principal use of the Standard Oil Company. An injunction was obtained.

JAPANESE NOT TO BE UNIONIZED

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 1.—Japanese workers in California will not be organized at the present time, at least, into unions affiliated with the California State Federaion of Labor, unless the report of the executive council of the federation, submitted at the opening of the annual convention here today, is overridden. The federation instructed the executive council at last year's convention to consider unionizing the Japanese, following an address before the convention by B. Suzuki, president of the Laborers' Friendly Society of Japana.

Discussing the matter, the council reported through Secretary Scharrenburg against organization efforts at this time, adding:

"For obvious reasons there should be no detailed report upon this subject at this time. This much may be said however: Many Japanese workers in California now are organized; not in labor unions such as the delegates to the convention represent, but, nevertheless, in effect, organizations to maintain a minimum schedule of prices."

The report commented that Japanese do not permit themselves to be used as strikebreakers.

The official reports also dwelt on the movement to organize migratory and farm labor. In the Bakersfield and Fresno district, the reports showed, three unions of farm laborers have been formed during the last year.

MUST SOLVE PROBLEM.

"It is becoming more and more evident that effective organization of seasonal labor in harvesting cannot be obtained without a solution of the transportation problem, the reports declared.

Passing to the San Francisco Preparedness Day parade bomb murder trials, the report of Secretary Scharrenburg expressed the belief that the convention would demand a thorough probe of all phases of the trials, particularly the F. C. Oxman testimony.

The social insurance question was dealt with in the report of President Daniel C. Murphy, who strongly favored adoption of such insurance in this state.

Dealing with labor disputes, the report declared that during the past year California has been largely free from strikes, in comparison with the large number of wage increases which were secured with the abnormally high living cost and other conditions conducive to labor disputes. In San Francisco twenty-nine unions secured wage increases and proportionately large numbers of increases were reported from other sections. It was declared Los Angeles is being steadily unionized and "can be placed near the top of the column as an organized town."

REPORTS READ.

President Daniel C. Murphy, in the course of his report said: "From any point of view, and particularly from that of organized labor, the past year should be considered an history making epoch, and it can easily be ventured that not alone in California but throughout our country, greater progress in securing industrial justice has been made than for some years past.

"Due to the unprecedented increase in the cost of foodstuffs and other necessities of life some strikes have been called, but in most instances the employers have recognized the justice of their employees' claims and through conciliation and arbitration many conflicts have been avoided."

According to the report of F. C. Marsh, one of the vice-presidents of the second district, Los Angeles county, "Los Angeles, at last, can be placed near the top of the column as an organized town, after many years of hard struggling." He stated that 2500 persons had been added to the membership of organized labor in that city.

FOR CIVIL SERVICE

Realizing the many openings that have been created in the service of the federal government, the Technical high school has arranged for course in civil service to be taught Tuesday and Thursday nights. The course will be taught until Christmas. Those wishing to take any special course, typing or stenography, for instance, can take such course in addition to the civil service course, the combination being considered desirable in government employ.

FIVE DIE, TEN ARE HURT, IN AUTO WRECKS

Five deaths and ten injuries were caused by automobile accidents in the bay region yesterday. The Foothill boulevard at Sixty-seventh avenue was the scene of a double accident which killed two men and injured one shortly after midnight this morning.

In a head-on collision between an automobile driven by W. P. Sugg of 1477 Harrison street and a motorcycle ridden by Louis J. Lang of 4329 West street, Lang was thrown heavily from his machine and his skull fractured on the pavement. While Sugg was engaged in picking up the injured man, M. S. Ives of 2140 Sixty-seventh avenue drove up in his automobile and stopped to help Sugg.

As the two men were busy at this task Harry Miller of 347 Forty-first street drove around the curve in his car and crashed into the group. Ives was instantly killed and Sugg suffered a fracture of the left leg and internal injuries. It is believed that Miller was blinded by the headlight of Sugg's machine. With him in the car were M. W. Bailey of the quartermaster's department at the Presideo and two women whose names were not ascertained.

TRAIN STRIKES AUTO.

J. F. Butler, 846 Hobart street, and O. A. Edwall, 355 Fiftieth street, were slightly injured yesterday when a northbound Key Route train on Poplar street struck their automobile at Eighteenth street. The machine was overurned and both men were pinned beneath it.

The police of San Francisco are looking for the two motorists who ran down and killed Tommaso Grasso, 392 Bay street, on the State highway near Baden crossing last night. Witnesses of the accident from a distance declare that the men dismounted from their car, picked up the body and threw it down an embankment into a ditch and then drove rapidly away. The accident was reported by some officers who noticed the body by the roadside.

Julia Bertucelli, 5 years old, of 376 Charter street, San Francisco, was killed while playing in the street at San Bruno avenue and Silliman street.

Gim Choy, a Chinese, was instantly killed by a runaway auto truck which started from the entrance to the Fairmont Hotel and hurtled down the Sacramento stree hill. The victim was walking down the hill unaware of danger, when he was crushed by the heavy truck as it suddenly swerved, careened across the sidewalk and carshed through a high board fence into a vacant lot.

Kirk Helbig, who leaped aboard the vehicle in an attempt to stop it, jumped off and suffered a broken leg.

MACHINE OVERTURNS.

[illegible] Johnson is lying in the Columbia Hospital with a crushed chest and E. Roulon has a fractured right leg as the result of the overturning of Johnson's automobile last night just north of the Willow Tavern on the Alviso road. In the machine with the two men were Manuel Gonzales, John Mendosa, Adfred Coo and Elmer Main, all of whom escaped with cuts and bruises.

The first to reach the overturned car was Joseph Napoli, a deputy sheriff, who had seen the car proceeding north on the Alviso road. He said that he saw one of the men in the tonneau reach forward and take hold of the steering wheel. Johnson then seemed to lose control of the machine, which left the road and crashed into a fence.

FRESNO, Oct. 1.—All except two of the eighteen people injured at the district fair grounds Saturday when two racing automobiles plunged into a crowd, have been discharged from the county hospital. The two remaining are not seriously injured, one being a boy with both knees sprained and the other a woman who is in a delicate condition.

SISTERS ARE VICTIMS.

AUBURN, Wash., Oct. 1.—Mildred and Amy Martin, sisters, and Michael Phillips were instantly killed at Pacific City, four miles south of here, when a Puget Sound Electric railway train, running 60 miles an hour struck the automobile in which they were riding. The victims were residents of Seattle.

COLTON, Oct. 1.—Thrown against a hot engine when the car in which they were riding was overturned in a collision with another automobile, the two young children of Walter McNair were terribly burned here late yesterday. The children were pinned underneath the machine, their bodies directly against the hot engine.

U. R. R. TO START FULL CAR SERVICE

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 1. — Today will mark the resumption of full night service on the United Railroads, it was announced by General von Phul this morning. He said: "The lack of violence yesterday and for the two or three days previous to that indicates that we are perfectly safe in establishing our full and normal schedule as existed before the men went out on August 11.

When Chief of Police White was informed of what the United Railroads contemplated, he said before the conference this morning, "No one is more pleased than I. The public has been caused considerable inconvenience and had the street car company wished to, they could have given night service weeks ago."

There were reports of violence this morning and service was resumed to the Union Iron Works, two cars arriving with the Municipal Special, which came in over the Ocean Shore.

ALASKAN JOBS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—The following nominations were sent to the Senate this afternoon:

William A. Munley, Anchorage, Alaska, district attorney for division number three of Alaska.

F. R. Brennan, Valdez, Alaska, to be United States marshal for division number three, district of Alaska.

SHRINERS JOLLY ON VALLEY TRIP

Footweary from their long trip over the hot sands, during which they dragged many an objecting camel to the oasis in the grove of ritual trees, 500 Nobles of Aahmes Temple of the Mystic Shrine, headed by Illustrious Potentate J. Loran Pease, returned to Oakland today from Stockton, where they took part in initiatory ceremonies.

The affair at Stockton was a record event for that city and an enthusiastic outing for the Oakland contingent. The local party took part in a parade through Stockton streets, headed by Chief of Police Simpson and a squad of Stockton police, and members of the Stockton lodge as an escort of honor. At Hunter square an exhibition drill was given by the Oakland drill team and the visiting nobles disbanded at the Hotel Stockton.

Trips down the river as guests of the Stockton lodge members, a dinner dance and ball at the Hotel Stockton and other functions filled the program. At the banquet a bag of beans was auctioned off for the benefit of the local Red Cross chapter, the Chief Rabban of Aahmes Temple purchasing it for $55. He immediately turned it back and it was reauctioned off several times, bringing in a total of $510 to the fund. Illustrious Potentate Pease was the last bidder and will offer the bag at other functions.

A number of candidates were initiated into the order during the stay of the Oakland contingent. Their initiation was the purpose of the trip.

MANY PLANS IN HAND FOR CHARITY FETE

But three more days and the gala event of the fall season will be on—the Baby Hospital fete—and ball, which will attract thousands to the Oakland Municipal Auditorium. All day long the great bazaar will be open to the public for the nominal admission fee of 10 cents, the same to be charged this year for the children's play to be an event of Saturday afternoon.

Thursday evening at 8:30 sharp, the regular program will begin with special music and singing by the finest artists in the bay section who have contributed their services for the benefit. Mrs. Arthur Fickenscher of Berkeley, a quartet from the University of California and Lawrence Strauss are among the soloists, to be accompanied by Miss Virginia de Fremery.

Miss Virginia Marvin, danseuse, will dance at intervals in the concert program. Then will follow singing by the "strolling musicians" in striking costumes of other climes. These will be Mrs. T. Arthur Rickard, Mrs. Armin Of Leuschner, Mrs. Leslie Gompertz, Miss Amy Holman, Russell Dille, W. S. Wesley and Will Olney.

CARNIVAL SPIRIT.

Immediately after the program merry-making will begin when the public will enjoy a series of entertainments arranged under the direction of Mrs. William Knowles. On this evening, the committee has particularly made plans for the entertainment of the "grownups." It is to be their night, and a carnival spirit will predominate amidst the village streets and market places of European countries.

Holly Branch will have its setting in the Japanese section from which the temple of Hachiman at Kamakura, the seaside resort with its oriental gardens, with Mount Fujiyama may be viewed in the distance. The members will be garbed in Chinese and Japanese costume. Their wares will be the elaborate and oriental effects of the far east.

Friday night will be dark at the auditorium but in the afternoon the bazaar will open to hundreds seeking useful and dainty gifts for the holidays.

CLAY STREET AT FIFTEENTH

Society

The committee of matrons whose duty it is to furnish entertainment to the enlisted men of the Presidio and Fort Scott, are planning an interesting affair for the evenings of October 2 and 4. This coming week Mrs. Carl J. Rhodin, chairman of Alameda district, has arranged for the presentation of Arnold Bennett's play "The Stepmother" to be given Tuesday evening at the Presidio and repeated Thursday evening at Fort Scott. The cast will include well known local talent, Miss Gladys Emmons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Wellington Emmons, to interpret the leading role. Others in the cast are Bruce Dillman, Robert Valleau and Harvey M. Toy. Merrill Brown and several of his fraternity brothers are to provide the musical entertainment upon both occasions. Miss Katherine Geldermann is to be soloist and will render a number of beautiful songs at intervals on the program.

Mrs. Herbert Sanford Howard of Berkeley and Gerda Wismer Hoffmann of San Francisco are other chairman of the bay cities, under whose supervision programs have been given for the amusement of the army men.

Society in Southern California is equally as interested as the local social set in the formal announcement of the engagement of Miss Mildred Needham, the charming and talented daughter of former Congressman and Mrs. J. C. Needham of Berkeley, and Lieutenant Edward T. Taylor, Jr., son of Congressman Taylor of Colorado. Miss Needham has been a favorite with the summer colony at the Hotel del Coronado and in San Diego where she has taken a prominent part in social functions. She is at present at the home of her parents in the college city. Miss Needham is a member of the Smith College and Zlac Rowing clubs. Her wedding is an interesting event of this fall.

Mr. Taylor is a graduate of the University of Colorado and of the George Washington Law School, in Washington, D. C. He is a member of the Delta Tau Delta and Phi Delta Phi fraternities. For the past three months he has been in training at the O. R. T. C. at Fort Meyer, Va., where he received his commission.

Lieutenant Taylor is now stationed at Fort Riley, Kansas, and it is there that the marriage of the couple is to be solemnized at the quarters of Lieutenant and Mrs. Ralph Hospitol, October 13.

✿ ✿ ✿

The week end brought to the social set many an interesting bit for conversation, since both by cards and at afternoon affairs engagements were announced, one after another. At a pretty tea at the Hotel Shattuck, Saturday afternoon, Miss Nancy Bonner Struill announced to 25 of her friends, her engagement to Lloyd Leland Williams of Terra Buena, Sutter county.

Miss Struill is the daughter of Mrs. A. E. Struill of Sutter county and has been attending the Kindergarten Training School in Berkeley for several months. The tea room was an attractive setting in golden dahlias and blue cornflowers, the guests seated at several small tables.

Mr. Williams is interested in ranching and has a large place near Marysville. The date for the marriage of Miss Struill and Mr. Williams has been set for November 1, but the place has not yet been decided upon. Miss Struill was assisted by her mother and Mrs. Rosina L. Allen in receiving. Those who were guests were Mrs. George Martin, Mrs. C. R. Flagg, Mrs. G. Scoggins, Miss Margaret Fisher, Mrs. Frank Bloomer, Miss Rachael Fisher, Miss Billie Fisher, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. C. Starr, Mrs. Gertrude Leaves, Mrs. Eulah Klink, Mrs. Percy Gordon, Mrs. Edward Williams, Mrs. Alice Wright, Mrs. Toogood, Miss Helen Lacey, Mrs. Ralph Ellis, Miss Juliet Williams, Miss Claire Williams and Miss Helen Williams.

✿ ✿ ✿

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Kenneth Winterer (Marion Bachman) are now living in Chicago where they went to establish their home shortly after their marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Winterer spent their honeymoon in the Canadian Rockies. The bride was one of the most popular of the young girls in Berkeley.

✿ ✿ ✿

Saturday evening the Junior dance at Mills College was held, the details being carried out in the utmost simplicity. Several hundred guests attended the dance which was given under the patronage of Dr. Aurelia Henry Reinhardt, president; Miss Suzanne Throop, Dean Harriet Ege, Mme. Evelyn Stoppani and Dr. Lucretia V. Simmons.

Announcements of the wedding of Miss Marie Kathryn De Bernardi and Oliver Edwin Seegelken, of the University of California, were received by many east bay friends last week. The marriage took place in Star of the Sea Church, San Francisco, Sunday, September 23, at 7 o'clock in the evening, the ceremony witnessed by only the immediate members of the family. Rev. Father Philip O'Ryan of that church was the officiating clergyman. Later a wedding supper was served at the Fairmont hotel.

Mrs. Seegelken, who is one of the younger brides of this season is of a tall brunette type and was a pretty picture in her bridal gown of ivory charmeuse satin veiled in georgette crepe embroidered in crystal beads. She wore the conventional bridal veil of tulle held in place at the coiffure with a circlet of the orange blossoms. Her shower was of brides roses and cyclamen arranged with lovers' knots of the tulle.

Mrs. D. Elmer Dyer of Alameda attended her sister as matron of honor. Mrs. Dyer was gowned in a pastel shade of yellow georgette crepe and wore a picture hat to complete the costume. She carried a shower of yellow rosebuds and tulle.

D. Elmer Dyer was best man at the wedding. The bride was given in marriage by her father, David D. De Bernardi of San Francisco.

At the Fairmont, where the wedding supper was served the bride's table was in pink dahlias shading from the palest tints to deep rose. Another table was in chrysanthemums in autumn tones and foliage. Only the immediate family were guests, with Rev. Phillip O'Ryan.

Mrs. Seegelken is a graduate of the College of Notre Dame and later attended the University of California where the romance of the couple had its origin. Mr. Seegelken is a graduate of the class of 1916 and a member of the Theta Chi fraternity.

The bride attended the art institute in San Francisco and is talented in the finer arts. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David D. De Bernardi of San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Seegelken are now at Lake Tahoe and upon their return will reside in an attractive home across the bay.

The Problems of Violet Strange

Anna Katherine Green's Absorbing Series of Mystery Stories. To Appear in The TRIBUNE—a Novel a Week

Here Follows the Strange Tale of

THE GOLDEN SLIPPER

"She's here! I thought she would be. She's one of the three young ladies you see in the righ-hand box near the proscenium."

The gentleman thus addressed—a man of middle age and a member of the most exclusive clubs—turned his opera glass toward the spot designated, and in some astonishment retorted:

"She? Why those are the Misses Pratt and—"

"Miss Violet Strange; no other."

"And do you mean to say—"

"I do—"

"That you silly little chit, whose father I know, whose fortune I know, who is seen everywhere, and who is called one of the season's belles is an agent of yours; a—a—"

"No names here, please. You want a mystery solved. It is not a matter for the police—that is, as yet—and so you come to me, and when I ask for the facts, I find that women and only women are involved, and that these women are not only young but one and all of the highest society. Is it a man's work to go to the botto mof a combination like this? No. Sex against sex, and, if possible, youth against youth. Happily, I know such a person—a girl of gifts and extraordinarily well placed for the purpose. Why she used her talents in this direction—why, with means enough to play the part natural to her as a successful debutante, she consents to occupy herself with social and other mysteries, you must ask her, not me. Enough that I promise you her aid if you want it. That is, if you can interest her. She will not work otherwise."

Mr. Driscoll again raised his opera glass.

"But it's a comedy face," he commented. "It's hard to associate intellectuality with such quaintness of expression. Are you sure of her discretion?"

"Who is she with?"

"Abner Pratt, his wife, and daughters."

"Is he a man to entrust his affairs unadvisedly?"

"Abner Pratt! Do you mean to say that she is anything more to him than his daughters' guest?"

"Judge. You see how merry they are. They were in deep trouble yesterday. You are witness to a celebration."

"And she?"

"Don't ou observe how they are loading her with attentions? She's too young to rouse such interest in a family off notable unsympathetic temperament, for any other reason than that of gratitude."

"It's hard to believe. But if what you hint is true, secure me an opportunity at once of talking to this youthful marvel. My affair is serious. The dinner I have mentioned comes off in three days and—"

"I know. I recognize your need; but I think you had better enter Mr. Pratt's box without my intervention. Miss Strange's value to us will be impaired the moment her connection with us is discovered."

"Ah, there's Ruthven! He will take me to Mr. Pratt's box," remarked Driscoll as the curtain fell on the second act. Any suggestions before I go?"

"Yes, and an important one. When you make your bow, touch your left shoulder with your right hand. It is a signal. She may respond to it; but if she does not, do not be discouraged. One of her idiosyncrasies is a theoretical dislike of her work. But once she gets interested, nothing will hold her back. That's all, except this. In no event give away her secret. That's part of the compact, you remember."

Driscoll nodded and left his seat for Ruthven's box. When the curtain rose for the third time he could be seen sitting with the Misses Pratt and their vivacious friend. A widower and still on the right side of fifty, his presence there did not pass unnoted, and curiosity was rife among certain onlookers as to which of the twin belles was responsible for this change in his well-known habits. Unfortunately, no opportunity was given him for showing. Other and younger men had followed his lead into the box, and they saw him forced upon the good graces and the fascinating but inconsequent Miss Strange whose rapid fire of talk he was hardly of a temperament to appreciate.

Did he appear dissatisfied? Yes; but only one person in the opera house knew why. Miss Strange had shown no comprehension of or sympathy with his errand. Though she chatted amiably enough between duets and trios, she gave him no opportunity to express his wishes, though she knew them well enough, owing to the signal he had given her.

This might be in character but it hardly suited his views; and, being a man of solution, he took advantage of an absorbing minute on the stage to lean forward and whisper in her ear:

"It's my daughter for whom I request your services; as fine a girl as any in this house. Give me a hearing. You certainly can manage it."

She was a small, slight woman whose naturally quaint appearance was accentuated by the extreme simplicity of her attire. In the tier upon tier of boxes rising before his eyes, no other personality could vie with hers in strangeness, or in the illusive quality of her ever-changing expression. She was vivacity incarnate, and to the ordinary observer, light as thistledown in fibre and in feeling. But not to all. To those who watched her long, there came moments—say hewn the music rose to heights of greatness—when the mouth so given over to laughter took on curves of the rarest sensibility, and a woman's lofty soul shone through her odd, bewildering features.

Driscol had noted this, and consequently awaited her reply in secret hope.

It came in the form of a question and onl yafter an instant's display of displeasure or possibly of pure nervous irritability.

"What has she done?"

"Nothing. But slander is in the air, and any day it may ripen into public accusation."

"Accusation of what?" Her tone was almost pettish.

"Of—of theft," he murmured. "On a great scale," he emphasized, as the music rose to a crash.

"Jewels?"

"Inestimable ones. They are always returned by somebody. People say, by me."

"Ah!" The little lady's hands grew steady—they had been fluttering al over her lap. "I will see you tomorrow morning at my father's house," she presently observed; and turned her full attention to the stage.

WED AT CHURCH

The wedding of Miss Anastatia Marie Griffin and Gustav Dorman Hadden is announced to their friends, the ceremony having taken place Tuesday, September 25, at a nuptial mass at 9:30 o'clock at St. Francis de Sales church, Rev. Father Keane officiating. Miss Elizabeth Walsh was bridesmaid and Ed Roleson, best man for the bridegroom. The bride wore a gown of silver lace draped over crepe de chine and the conventional veil of tulle held in place with a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Walsh was gowned in pink messaline, carrying pink bridesmaid roses.

The wedding breakfast was served following the ceremony, immediately after which the couple left for British Columbia.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Margaret Griffin, of 434 Weldon avenue. She is a graduate of St. Joseph's Institute.

The groom is a nephew of Dr. David Hadden of this city. On their return to the bay cities Dorman and his bride will reside in San Francisco.

HE AIDS RANGES

Greatly increased production of sheep on the ranges in Humboldt, Mendocino and Sonoma counties will be secured with the assistance of Oakland capitalists, if R. G. Sloane, of Healdsburg succeeds in plans which have brought him here. Cloane wants to bring the land owners of these three counties in touch with the capitalists of Oakland and the other bay cities. His plan is to get the former to supply the land and the financiers to stock the land with ewes, the two to split the proceeds.

Garis' BEDTIME STORIES

(By Howard R. Garis)

"How do you like it, Uncle Wiggily?" asked Lulu Wibblewobble, the duck girl, as she walked up on the porch of the hollow stump bungalow where Mr. Longears, the rabbit gentleman, lived.

"Eh? Oh, excuse me! What's that? Who are you and what did you say?" asked the bunny gentleman, sitting up with a start in his easy chair.

"I'm Lulu," answered the little duck girl, and I came to see how you liked my new hat."

"Eh? Oh, I see! I was asleep and dreaming Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy had just given me some new kind of carrot pancakes," went on Uncle Wiggily. "I thought you meant how did I like them. So it's a new hat, eh?"

"Yes," answered Lulu, turning around slowly like a top that is tired of spinning. "How do you like it?"

Uncle Wiggily looked at the curley-cues, at the thing-ama-bobs, the dingle-dangles and the what-you-may-call-its on the little duck girl's hat and said:

"It is very nice indeed!"

"I'm glad you like it," spoke Lulu. "Now maybe you'll let me come walking with you to look for an adventure."

"Ho! Ho!" laughed Uncle Wiggily. "I'd do that anyhow—hat or no hat. But since you have it, so much the better. Come on; I've had my nap."

So Uncle Wiggily and the duck girl started out.

Over the fields and through the woods they went, looking for an adventure, but they could not seem to find any and the rabbit gentleman was beginning to feel disappointed when, all of a sudden, Lulu cried:

"Oh, Uncle Wiggily!"

"Well, what is it now, my dear? Don't tell me your stockings are coming down the way Susie's did."

"No, it isn't that," spoke Lulu, "but the wind is blowing very hard and I haven't any elastic on my hat to hold it on my head. I have to keep one wing holding it down all the while and I'm getting tired."

"Take your wing away and see what happens," said Uncle Wiggily.

Lulu did so and—puff!—away flew her hat.

"Oh, that's too bad!" cried Uncle Wiggily, hopping after it. "However, it isn't hurt," he said, as he brought it back.

"I wish I had some way of fastening it on," said Lulu.

"Can't you use a hat pin, the way Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy does?" asked the bunny. "I could make you a hat pin out of a long thorn."

"I haven't my hair done up on top of my head, and you have to have it that way to use hat pins," spoke Lulu.

"Oh, excuse me!" said Uncle Wiggily. "Well, I'm sure I don't know what to do!"

"Maybe if you could find those two kind garter snakes who held up Susie's stockings they could twine themselves around my hat and under my chin and hold my bonnet on that way," suggested Lulu.

"Maybe," agreed Uncle Wiggily. But when he and the duck girl looked for the garter snakes the crawly creatures could not be found, having gone to a picnic.

Then Uncle Wiggily thought real hard, and he said:

"Ha! I think I have it! I can take some sticky gum from the pine tree and fasten your new hat on your head that way, Lulu. I'll do it!" And the bunny gentleman began looking for the pine tree.

"Oh, wait a minute, if you please!" cried Lulu. "Is that pine tree gum sticky like fly paper, Uncle Wiggily?" she asked as the bunny getleman came toward her with some on the end of a stick.

"It is very sticky," he answered. "Very."

"Then, if it gets in my hair, as it would do if you stuck my hat on with it, I'd never get it out," said Lulu. "Thank you, Uncle Wiggily, but—"

"Ha! No! You are right! The pine tree gum would never do!" said the bunny uncle, throwing it away. "Now, let me see. I must do something!"

And if was time he did, for the wind was now blowing so strong that Lulu had to hold her hat on with both wings and she couldn't walk at all in comfort.

Just then Mr. Longears saw, waving toward him, some long pieces of striped grass, white and green in color.

"Ha! I have it!" he cried. "Ribbon grass! With strands of them I can tie Lulu's hat under her chin so it can't blow off. The ribbon grass will be as good as the piece of string I used on Sammie's hat."

So, using the grass for ribbons, the bunny uncle soon stopped Lulu's hat from blowing away, and then they walked on and had ice cream cones for a treat.

URGE 8-HOUR DAY

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 1.—Though deprecating the necessity of a strike to enforce their demands, Frank Morrison, secretary of the American Federation of Labor, in an address at the Union Labor Temple here yesterday, urged union steel workers of the Pittsburg district to demand an eight-hour day, with time and a half for all overtime. Several thousand workers of the steel industry attended the meeting.

"I want to say that the American Federation of Labor stands behind President Wilson for the purpose of carrying the war straight through to victory, but we do not propose unnecessarily to sacrifice the members of labor to help make war profits for the great manufacturers," said Secretary Morrison.

WOMAN NOW IN PERFECT HEALTH

What Came From Reading a Pinkham Advertisement.

Paterson, N. J.—"I thank you for the Lydia E. Pinkham remedies as they have made me well and healthy. Some time ago I felt so run down, had pains in my back and side, was very irregular, tired, nervous, had such bad dreams, did not feel like eating and had short breath. I read your advertisement in the newspapers and decided to try a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It worked from the first bottle, so I took a second and a third, also a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Purifier, and now I am just as well as any other woman. I advise every woman, single or married, who is troubled with any of the aforesaid ailments, to try your wonderful Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier and I am sure they will help her to get rid of her troubles as they did me."—Mrs. ELSIE J. Please inform me if the bill which entitles working women to a minimum wage of ten dollars a week has been passed by Congress. If so, when does it go into effect? Are employers forced to pay weekly? —H. S.

There has been no federal law enacted on this subject. In 1913 the California State Legislature created the Industrial Welfare Commission and empowered it to make such regulations as it saw fit. One of the rules of the commission is that "no experienced woman employed in a mercantile establishment shall receive less than ten dollars a week." Any further and more definite information you may require can be obtained by writing directly to the commission, 525 Market street, San Francisco.

If a baby is abandoned by its parents, being left on the doorstep of an orphans' home and later adopted, can the parent or parents at any future time make any claim on it. —G. H. H.

No. The natural parents can establish no legal claim to a child whom they deliberately abandoned without leaving any clue as to their identity. That is the present status of the California law.

Can you tell me the name of the new yellowish-green gas that is used in the present war by Germany? —L. D. G.

The exact formula of this gas is not known, except by the military chemists who have analyzed it. It is one of the chlorine gases.

Why is it, in shaking dice, that when you win a "horse," you "shake back" or start the next shake, instead of allowing your opponent to shake in the same order as the game started? —A. G. T.

Presumably it is a courtesy of the game giving the winner of the temporary advantage the right of the challenger. In starting a game of dice, the first man to throw is the challenger. When you win a "horse" or temporary advantage, you become the challenger and have the right to the first throw.

How does the price of the "London Times" compare with the prices of American papers, such as The TRIBUNE? —T. R. B.

The "London Times" formerly sold for the pence (six cents) a copy. After Lord Northcliffe acquired the property, the price was dropped for a time to one penny (two cents). But this did not prevail for long. The price since November 20, 1916, has been three and a half pence (seven cents).

What is the meaning of the word "boche" as applied to the Germans by the French? —C. M.

The word is said to be an abbreviation of "caboche," meaning a short nail with a large head. Caboche became the slang term for "tete" or "head" and as abbreviated to "boche" became the slang term for "a German." It had existed for nearly fifty years, as is shown in the writings of Courteline, Bruant, Delvan and Bouting, but it did not become popular outside of military circles until 1914.

Teachers' Duty Told by President Wilson

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—President Wilson declares that the work of all our schools must be intensified and extended. He recommends this not only as a temporary need of the war time, but as permanent.

He sent the following letter to all school officers from the White House:

WHITE HOUSE, WASHINGTON, Aug. 23, 1917. To School Officers—The war is bringing to the minds of our people a new appreciation of the problems of national life, and a deeper understanding of the meaning and aims of democracy. Matters which heretofore have seemed [illegible] are seen in a truer light. The urgent demand for the production and proper distribution of food and other national resources has made us aware of the close dependence of individual on individual, and nation on nation. The effort to keep up social and industrial organizations in spite of the withdrawal of men for the army has revealed the extent to which modern life has become complex and specialized.

"These and other lessons of the war must be learned quickly if we are intelligently and successfully to defend our institutions. When the war is over we must apply the wisdom which we have acquired in enlarging and ennobling the life of the world.

"In these vital tasks of acquiring a broader view of human possibilities the common school must have a large part. I urge that teachers and other school officers increase materially the time and attention devoted to instruction bearing directly on the problems of community and national life.

"Such a plea is in no way foreign to the spirit of American public education or of existing practices. Nor is it a plea for a temporary enlargement of the school program appropriate merely to the period of the war. It is a plea for a realization in public education of the new emphasis which the war has given to the ideals of democracy and to the broader conceptions of national life.

"In order that there may be definite material at hand with which the schools may at once extend their teaching I have asked Mr. Hoover and Commissioner Claxton to organize the proper agencies for the preparation and distribution of suitable lessons for the elementary grades and for the high school classes. Lessons thus sugested will serve the double purpose of illustrating in a concrete way what can be undertaken in the schools and of stimulating teachers in all parts of the country to formulate new and appropriate materials drawn directly from the communities in which they live. Sincerely yours, WOODROW WILSON.

Wipe meat and cut into small pieces; have the bones cracked. Put meat into the cold, salted water. Let stand thirty minutes, then heat slowly to boiling point. Cook gently from four to six hours, closely covered. Add vegetables the last hour of cooking. Strain and cool quickly.

Julienne Soup—Heat one quart soup stock to boiling point. Add one-fourth cup each cooked carrot and turnip in tiny cubes or thin strips, and one-fourth cup cooked green peas or one tablespoon finely chopped parsley. Add seasoning if necessary and serve hot.

CANNING AND PRESERVING.

Green Tomato Mincemeat—Twelve and one-half pounds green tomatoes chopped fine or ground, twelve and one-half pounds apples chopped fine, one pound currants, two pounds raisins, one pound suet, four pounds brown sugar, one tablespoon each of cinnamon, cloves, allspice and nutmeg ground, one cup vinegar. Let tomatoes stand in salt water three hours, drain; add rest of ingredients with a little water; boil thirty minutes; can and seal. Tastes like mincemeat made with ground beef, hence the economy of using green tomatoes.

Green Tomato Mincemeat — Grind one peck green tomatoes and scald off three times. Take three quarts ground apples, four pounds brown sugar, one pound suet ground, two pounds raisins ground, one pint vinegar, one tablespoon cinnamon, one-half tablespoon cloves, one tablespoon salt. Mix well and boil twenty minutes. Can while hot. This makes about seven quarts.

Candied Watermelon Rind — Cut watermelon into pieces one and one-half inches square. Boil in water (to which pinch of alum is added) until tender, then drain well. Make a thick syrup and cook the melon in it until clear and the syrup nearly cooked down. Spread on plates and partly dry in oven; then sprinkle granulated sugar on both sides and drop two or three drops of Jamaica ginger on each piece. Dry until you can handle without sticking to the fingers.

Chili Sauce — Twelve tomatoes, (medium size), one onion, one pepper, one cup sugar, one pint vinegar. Put spices in bag; two teaspoons cinnamon, two teaspoons nutmeg, two teaspoons cloves, two teaspoons allspice. Salt to taste and cook all together to desired thickness.

California Orange Marmalade—Six large oranges and three lemons. Peel these, cutting peelings in lengths about an inch long. Cut up pulp and take out seeds, strings and skins found between the sections. Put in a crock or earthen dish, cover with cold water. Let stand all night. Next morning pour off all this water and throw it away, for in it is all the bitterness of the fruit. Now put fruit into medium-sized preserving kettle and add seven cups fresh water. Let this cook until tender and water has boiled down quite a little or lowered one-half inch in the kettle. Add as much sugar as you have fruit. Let it cook up well and put in jelly glasses. This is delicious and inexpensive. Many dislike orange marmalade because it is so bitter, [illegible] false economy and save the bitter water you will have the same sour and bitter marmalade that most people dislike.

Don't Eat Less—But Eat Better.

There is no need of anyone going hungry. Americans should eat foods that supply the greatest amount of nutriment at the lowest cost. The whole wheat grain is the most perfect food given to man. Shredded Wheat Biscuit is the whole wheat grain prepared in a digestible form. Every particle of the whole wheat berry is used—nothing wasted, nothing thrown away. Two or three of these biscuits with milk, sliced peaches or other fruits make a nourishing, satisfying meal at a cost of a few cents. Made in Oakland, California.

STOCK DEMAND OPENS LARGE

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Stocks were in demand at the opening of the stock market today and prices in the initial dealings showed gains of from one to more than two points.

United States Steel was ½ higher, at 116¾, and Bethlehem Steel B showed an equal gain at 94½. Baldwin advanced 1¾ to 65.

Distillers' Securities continued its advance, rising 2¾ to 41¾. American Can was active, selling at 47, an upturn of 1¼.

The marines weer strong, Atlantic Gulf advancing 1¾ to 104½, and marine preferred was up one point at 89.

The copper shares and railroad stocks made gains of from fractions to about one point.

Railroad issues sold down to the lowest prices touched in many years. St. Paul declined to below 54 a drop of 3 points. Baltimore & Ohio dropped to below 62 and Canadian Pacific sold down from 150 to 146¾.

The steel industrials maintained a strong tone, United States Steel selling at 111¼, but after the break in the railroads it dropped one point, as did most of the other active industrials.

Sales today, 575,700 shares, bonds, $2,897,000.

The market closed steady; government bonds steady; railway and other bonds heavy.

Railway stocks rested after reaching new low records for many years. St Paul fell to 52¾, for the first time since 1855. New York Central and Canadian Pacific rallied one point. United States Steel ranged from 110⅝ to 111¼. Distillers rose two points to 44¼ and then reacted to 41½.

The weakness in the railroad stocks was followed by an unsettling in the copper issues. Reference to excess taxes accompanied heavy sales of Utah, which fell from 94½ to 90⅛. Anaconda fell over two points to 70⅛. General Motors declined to 94¾ against an early high of 100½. St. Paul continued its downward movement to 53⅛.

Chicago Wheat Pit

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—Frost in the Central States brought about higher prices today in the corn market. Opening quotations, which range from ⅛@¾@⅞c up, at $1.19@1.19⅜ December, and $1 16¼@1.16¼ May, were followed by a moderate reaction.

Corn—No. 2 yellow, $1.96@2; Nos. 3 and 4 yellow, nominal.

Rye—No. 2, $1.90@1.90½; No. 2, $1 89.

Barley, $1.20@1 42. Timothy, $6@7.75. Clover, $12@22.

Official announcement that no unusually cold weather was in prospect for the corn belt and that no killing frost had been reported, led afterward to declines. The market closed unsettled to ½c off to a shade advance, with December at $1 18¾ and May $1 15¼@1 75¾.

MORE GOLD HELD CAUSE OF BIG COST

Economist Traces High Prices to Heavier Circulation of Coin; Solution Is Offered

Prof. Irving Fisher, at University of California, Gives Data on Relations of Conditions

High prices in the markets of the world follow certainly and surely any increase in the amount of bullion circulated in those markets, according to Professor Irving Fisher, of the Political Economy Department of Yale University, who this afternoon delivered the first of the 1917 Hitchcock lectures at the University of California.

"Many things, such as waste and increased production, affect price movements," said Professor Fisher, this morning. "Aside from them there is a relation between the increase of gold in circulation and the movement of prices, and this relation has been marked during the present war.

"It was known that an increase of the bullion in circulation is followed by a rise in prices, but the relation of the two in time had not been determined. During the war the average time elapsing between an influx of gold into the United States and the succeeding upward movement of prices in the country has been one and three-quarter months."

His analysis of the relation between prices and circulating money was explained with the following example:

GIVES ANALOGY.

"Should each person in the United States awake some morning with a gift of money that doubled his usual amount of pocket cash, the increase in spending money would average $45 per capita. This money would immediately be thrown into circulation to buy a greater quantity of things than the buyer would ordinarily purchase. The increasing volume of business would force the merchants to protect their stocks by raising prices and by heavily restocking. In this manner the flood of money in the market is not dissipated but is passed along, with high prices resulting."

The present fixed gold value of the dollar as an arbitrary yard stick by which commodity values are measured, would be changed by Professor Fisher in his solution of the problem of fluctuating prices. Fluctuating prices result from the application of the fixed standard, he said, and, in his solution, he suggests the substitution of a "stardardized dollar" representing a variable weight of reserve bullion in the treasury.

PRICE MOVEMENTS.

The subject of his lecture today, which was given in the auditorium of Wheeler hall, at 4 o'clock this afternoon, was "Price Movements Before the War." The series of Hitchcock lectures will include six addresses by Professor Fisher. The next will be given Wednesday afternoon, and the third Friday afternoon, at the same place and time as the lecture today. The remaining three lectures will be given next week on Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons.

FIND MAN THROUGH STORY IN TRIBUNE

Mystery surrounding the disappearance of Frank J. Griesbaum, a former soldier, from his home, 4224 Forter street, ten days ago, was cleared up today when an account of his absence printed in The TRIBUNE brought to light the fact that he has been working for a week at the plant of the Great Western Electric Chemical Company at Pittsburg.

Timekeper J. J. McDonald of the company remembered the name of the man for whom the police of the whole bay district have been searching, as one of his employees. He notified the Oakland authorities and also the missing man's wife. The latter is arranging to have her husband brought home. According to Mrs. Griesbaum, her husband suffers from ocasional mental lapses during which he wanders away to other cities without any recollection of his identity.

Griesbaum applied for work a week ago Saturday at the plant and was put to work as a painter. He was lucid at that time and gave his correct name and address. Monday he had several epileptic fits and was put to bed in a lodging house in Pittsburg. He has remained there until today when the story of his disappearance came under McDonald's eye and cleared up the mystery of his absence.

Griesbaum was injured about the head several years ago, according to his wife.

Dr. Aked Speaks

on war conditions in Turkey at the Auditorium tonight at 8:15. Rev. Dr. Palmer will preside.

INSURANCE MAN WILL BE WITNESS

B. Schapire, insurance expert of San Francisco, will be the principal witness of the arbitration board at the hearing tonight in the council chamber at the city hall of the wage controversy of the street railway company and its platform men. It is expected that the closing argument will be begun, and tomorrow the last of the expert witnesses will be heard and the arguments will be finished.

While no intimation has been given as to the trend of the board's opinion on the solution of the financial and labor difficulties of the company those who have followed the hearings have commented on the interest shown by the members in all matters that have had to do with municipal ownership in the adjustment of similar disputes.

Living conditions in the bay district also have received a great deal of attention and this factor in the wage situation is expected to be dealt with at length in the findings of the board. Besides F. R. Macauley of the department of economics of the University of California, Dr. Jessica B. Piexotto, associate professor in the university, will be heard in a discussion of "The Household Budget." Dr. Peixotto has done extensive research work in connection with the cost of living in the bay district, and the conclusions she will draw when she goes on the stand tomorrow are expected to be not only of value to the board but important to every household.

Macauley also will be called tomorrow to analyze the wage scale of the company in connection with the age of its employees.

WOMAN ESCAPES

Authorities at Agnew asylum have reported the escape of Mrs. Emma L. Ross from the institution yesterday following a visit from her son, Leland, a machinist employed in Oakland. Mrs. Ross is still out of custody.

Mrs. Ross was committed in September, 1916, from Alameda county, after a jury trial in which she called fourteen witnesses in her defense. The case attracted a great deal of attention at the time because of the fight she made to establish her sanity. Her son Leland testified in her behalf.

"I tried many remedies but they did not help me. Then I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. The first couple of times I used them they relieved the itching and burning and I was entirely healed in two weeks." (Signed) Miss Celestia Stehr, Arlington, Wash., Mar. 29, 1917.

It is easier to prevent skin troubles than to heal them. Clear the pores and keep them clear by using Cuticura Soap for every-day toilet purposes and touches of Ointment as needed.

SHOPS BUZZ ANEW WHEN STRIKE ENDS

Directions From National Vice-President Lead Boilermakers Back Into the Shipyards

As Result of Conferences Held at Portland Hope of an Early Settlement Is Entertained

The crash of pneumatic riveters, trip hammers and power lathes replaced the hollow echoes of empty shops this morning, when 30,000 strikers of the metal trades craft of the bay district returned to work on $15,000,000 worth of government contracts after more than two weeks of inactivity. Of the total number some 6,000 were forced involuntarily to quit operations on account of the strike of the rest, and these also are back to work today.

They fought it out all day yesterday with the boilermakers who refused to accept the mediation wage of Uncle Sam as arranged by the Government's special mediator, Attorney Gavin McNab. Twenty-seven hundred of the boilermakers assembled in the Municipal Auditorium in San Francisco with the members of the conference committee early in the day and until late last night the struggle continued.

HEAR FROM OFFICIAL.

The majority of the men in the Iron Trades Council had decided to go back to work under the Government's revised scale of wages, for six weeks at least to give the Federal Wage Adjustment Board time to come from Washington to make a study of conditions and work out a permanent wage scale. Then the boilermakers refused to ratify the agreement of the rest and the situation deadlocked.

Investigation disclosed the fact about 500 boilermakers were numbered among the insurgents. To convince the 500, was yesterday's task. On the eve of the meeting, the boilermakers wired their stand in the controversy to J. A. Franklin, president of the international association of boilermakers at Kansas City.

Yesterday the answer came from a vice-president of the international. He declared that inasmuch as the Iron Trades Council, representing the majority of the union men, had expressed itself for a settlement of the strike, no single union had any right to refuse the program. This marked the end of the strike. The boilermakers buried the hatchet and came back to work. The following statement issued by M. J. McGuire, president of the [illegible] Union gives their idea of the matter:

"The boilermakers agreed by unanimous vote to return to work this morning under protest at the agreement ratified by the Iron Trades Council. They will not work on unfair work, and they will not recognize $6 per day as a maximum wage.

"In reaching this decision the boilermakers wish, however, to correct the mistaken public impression that it has been a question of dollars and cents that has been involved in their refusal to return to work up to the present time. This is far from the truth. The boilermakers have been standing for the principles of unionism, and they are particularly averse to the temporary agreement because it permits the handling of non-union material by union men. The boilermakers will return to work, but they will not handle any material but that coming from union shops."

In the east bay district work was resumed at the regular hour this morning, just as though nothing had ever happened. At the Union Iron Works, the Moore & Scott shipyard, the Hanlon Shipbuilding Company, the Hall-Scott Motor Company in Berkeley and other manufacturing plants where operations have been suspended for the past two weeks, the men appeared, were given re-employment and went back to work on the delayed contracts.

It is understood that employers intend speeding up work on the various contracts to make up for the time loss of the strike.

OUTLOOK BRIGHT.

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 1.—With E. G. Harry, federal mediator, in charge of attempts to settle the strike of shipyard workers in the Columbia river district, and conferences being held between employers and employees, the outlook for the early end of the controversy is extremely bright today, according to Harry.

Eugene E. Smith, appointed by the city council to try to find a basis for an adjustment of the trouble, resigned today, declaring his services were not acceptable to the union factions, although he formerly was president of the Central Labor Council.

It is believed now that the local situation will be cleared before the arrival from Washington of the labor board of the United States Emergency Fleet Corporation.

ATLANTIC TIE-UP.

BOSTON, Oct. 1.—A serious tie-up of ocean-going freight is feared if a strike of more than 1000 dock freight handlers, which went into effect here today, is long continued. The men employed by the Boston and Maine and Boston and Albany railroads demand an eight-hour day in place of the present nine hours and an advance in wages.

COMMISSION STARTS.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—President Wilson's special commission appointed to seek adjustment of labor differences that now are retarding work in war industries, left Washington early today for the west on a two-months' tour of districts affected by strikes and threatened tieups.

The commission, headed by Secretary of Labor Wilson, first will direct its energies toward settling the troubles in the copper mines of Arizona and will proceed direct to Phoenix. Conferences will be held there between operators of the Clifton and Morenci mining properties and an effort will be made to secure an agreement on wage schedules.

GET MURDER JURY

The jury in the trial of Urban R. Lawson for the murder of H. D. Wood at the Golden Eagle Hotel June 30, was secured today in Judge Ogden's department. According to the information in the case Lawson shot Wood and after an altercation in the hallway of the hotel, during which Lawson's relations with Mrs. Wood were discussed.

SUGAR DROPS; NEW PRICE SHOWS BIG REDUCTIONS

Sugar dropped 1.15 cents a pound today, the biggest cut in sugar prices in recent years. The price of beet sugar from the refiners is 7.25 cents a pound by direction of the sugar department of Hoover's food administration in Washington. It has been selling for 8.20 cents a pound. While it was proposed on Saturday to make a differentiation of 10 cents between the prices of cane and beet sugar, the Western Sugar Refining Company, to meet the reduction in the price of beet sugar, issued a new price list on cane sugar, which took effect today.

Cane granulated is quoted from the refinery at exactly the same price, 7.25 cents a pound, with other grades in proportion.

This means cane granulated sugar will be sold by many of the retail dealers at 11 to 11½ pounds for a dollar. Grocers claim they cannot sell it at less because they have to pay the jobber $7.50 a hundred pounds.

With the prices of both cane and beet sugar the same, the beet sugar market in California is apt to suffer to some extent, as there will be a bigger demand for cane sugar, according to Oakland wholesale sugar dealers. It is likely on that account that large quantities of beet sugar will be shipped to Eastern and other markets from here, he says.

WEINBERG SEEKS CHANGE OF VENUE

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 1.—The petition for change of venue in the case of Israel Weinberg, one of the preparedness day bomb plot defendants, from the court of Judge Frank Dunne, was heard this morning and on an objection by Assistant District Attorney Louis Ferrari, it went over until next Monday at which time Judge Dunne said both state and defense must be ready for trial.

The petition alleged bias on the part of Judge Dunne against Warren K. Billings, who has already been sentenced to life imprisonment in San Quentin and the contention of Ferrari was that the alleged bias against Billings did not operate against Weinberg and cited demurrers to that effect. Judge Dunne indicated that the change of venue would not be given and that he would hear the Weinberg case when he said:

"I want it understood at this time that every one connected with this case must be ready to go to trial October 8, the other cases to follow in their order."

GIRL LOST; "ACCIDENT" IS MYSTERY

Queer Telephone Call Only Clew to Whereabouts of Missing Nurse; Search Is Started

"Mishap" at Warm Springs Not Traced; Foul Play Is Feared by Woman's Relatives

What has become of Miss Edith Perry, pretty Alameda nurse, who is supposed to be lying injured somewhere in Alameda county, the victim of an automobile accident near Warm Springs yesterday morning?

Miss Perry left her home, a private hotel at 2328 Santa Clara avenue, Alameda, without apprising anyone of her intentions, yesterday morning. She left no word at the Broadlawn Sanitarium in Alameda, where she is employed. Yet in that interval, a matter of twenty-four hours, she has dropped completely from sight.

A mysterious telephone message reached newspapers, the girl's home and the sanitarium this morning saying that she had been injured at Warm Springs when a machine turned over, throwing her to the road. The message came in a man's voice.

The man said he did not know where the girl had been taken, or the extent of her injuries other than a broken arm and bruises. He also declared he was unable to give her address but believed she was employed at the Broadlawn Sanitarium in Alameda. To the latter place a similar message said Miss Perry had been injured and was unable to come to work.

Miss Perry was a graduate of the Alameda Sanitarium and was formerly employed at the county hospital. She had many friends in this city and Alameda but has apparently made no attempt to communicate with any of them. Fears are felt for her safety both at her home and the sanitarium, owing to the fact that she has sent no personal message since the alleged accident.

Inquiries at Warm Springs reveal no trace of an automobile accident being noticed on the San Jose highway by passing automobilists or garage men.
